Dignity Is Virtue
With Senate, and a Fault With
Dawes

VICE-PRESIDENT DAWES faces the most unruly school he ever taught. He shocked all its traditions at their first meeting, and what is worse, got himself laughed at. That is the least auspicious beginning possible for a new teacher who hopes to maintain discipline. He was "undignified" and the senate thinks that is a fault. He was "impertinent" and the senate thinks that is a worse fault. He "did not know his place" and the senate thinks that is the worst fault of all. Altogether—the senate—General Dawes is in bad.

But the trouble is, General Dawes is right. The things he wants done ought to be done. His conception that these things are his business is in accordance with the Constitution, even if the senate has habitually ignored that fact. General Dawes is a specialist in administration. He found a big business working wrong, and he made it work right. He found the purchases and supplies of the Allied armies working wrong, and he made them work right. The routine business of the United States government was working wrong. The tradition is that he shall sit passively and let them continue to work wrong. It would be the first time in his life.

Perhaps the senate can haze and snub him into doing it. But not without some explosions on his part which the whole world will hear. And finally, whether his senatorial methods can get it done in the senate or not, the people, sooner or later, are going to get it done, even if they have to use unconstitutional methods, too.

Charge the vice-president with being "undignified" all you like. It is true. The only question is whether it is a fault or a virtue. The senate thinks it is a fault.

FRANCE will not "repudiate" its debts. Oh, no. That would hurt France's credit, for future loans. The same with Italy. As they hope for future favors, they will not repudiate past obligations. Not they.

But if America were graciously to remit those debts, that would be different. An old debt forgiven does not preclude later contracting another.

These debts, they explain, cannot be paid. The money is not there, and the people, whose consent to taxation would be necessary, do not think they ought to be paid.

But the remission must come from us. They, to save their future credit, still "promise to pay." We for the same purpose, must take the initiative in requesting them not to keep that promise.

All of which is merely the game of bluff preliminary to finding out, soberly, on the facts, what they can and fairly should pay, and then arranging, against the will of their people, for them to pay that, and against the will of our people for us to forgive the rest.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT was of the opinion that the "mere lawyer" was not superior to, but rather the inferior of, the "mere dentist or 'mere' bricklayer as a public official.

Doubtless he would have preferred something beyond the "mere" grade of any sort. Certainly the "mere" politician, though not the most incompetent, is decidedly the most dangerous of all.

And the "mere" publicist, who in his library has studied it all out, is likely to be an invaluable assistant, but a useless leader.

The best thing is to get away from "mereness" of any sort. But that is not easy, in this day of specialization, when we absolutely must act on expert knowledge, and the man who is not a "mere" something in particular is likely to be nothing in general.

It is sometimes a choice between the rank of amateurs, who know nothing about anything, and the "mere" specialists, who know everything about something and nothing about anything else.

Only once in a while we find a Roosevelt, who is an intelligent amateur of everything and something more than a "mere" expert in something.

PRESIDENTIAL RACE IN 1928 INVOLVED

LaFollette Is Replaced As Chief of Revolvers In G. O. P. Ranks

WASHINGTON, D.C., March 13.—The struggle between the administration and the senate over the confirmation of Charles Beecher Warren as attorney general has thrown into relief the figure of Senator Borah of Idaho as a leader of the Republican party, second only in influence to President Coolidge.

Calvin Coolidge is indisputably the chief of the great conservative majority of the Republican party, but recent developments demonstrate clearly that Borah is the leader of the growing liberal minority of the party. The rivalry may find its decision only in the presidential contest of 1928. Therefore, tests of strength between the two politicians are maintaining keenest interest.

The new senate had barely come into being before Borah took his stand astride the path of the president's wishes. He vigorously opposed the Coolidge determination to purge the party of the supporters of LaFollette.

The president won in that first clash. But when Senators LaFollette, Frazier and Brookhart were expelled from the party Senator Borah prophesied the majority would regret its action. Less than a week later resentment over the expulsion culminated in an independent Democratic coalition with Borah succeeding LaFollette as independent leader, which rejected Warren and dealt President Coolidge the sharpest blow struck by the senate to any president in sixty years.

Though Borah differs from the president on most of his policies, they agree completely on economy and tax reduction. On these issues Borah fights as vigorously for the president's views as on others he opposes them.

As chairman of the foreign relations committee, leader of the new liberal bloc in the senate and as a man who personally is more influential among his fellow senators than any other, Borah is a figure of importance who may prove a serious obstruction to the president's policies throughout the next four years.

MISS BARRYMORE REPORTED BETTER

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 13.—Ethel Barrymore, noted actress, ill here for the last few days, was on her way to New York today. Physicians announced yesterday her condition was improving steadily. It will be some time, however, before she is able to return to the stage, physicians said.

KNOTTY PROBLEMS FACING INTERIOR SECRETARY AS REGARDS OIL, IRRIGATION

WASHINGTON, March 12.—Oil and water—the conservation of the nation's petroleum oil resources and the readjustments of the reclamation projects to irrigate the arid lands of the west—are the principal problems facing the interior department as it enters a new administration after four years of trouble, climaxed by the Teapot Dome upheaval.

'Rainmaker' Is Hired by Coalinga Folk

CORCORAN, Cal., March 13.—Charles M. Hatfield, "the rainmaker" will shake the dice with J. Pluvius in an effort to bring rain from the cloudless skies of the Coalinga country starting Monday.

Hatfield has been offered $8000 by ranchers around Tulare lake if he will deliver two inches of rain between March 15 and May 1.

A year ago Hatfield won the purse when his tower was the center of a three-inch rain that saved crops in the section.

ISLE OF PINES TREATY GIVEN SENATE O. K.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—Cuba's quarter of a century struggle for complete independence ended today when the senate relinquished all claim to title in the Isle of Pines and established the complete sovereignty of Cuba over the last of her claimed territory.

The vote was 63 to 14. Ratification of the treaty came at the end of a 20 year struggle formally to turn over the island to Cuba.

Approximately 600 Americans are on the Isle of Pines and own nearly three-quarters of the land. The treaty provides for protection of their interests by the original reservation of the treaty that ratification does not mitigate against them. The treaty was signed by the governments in 1904 and every president since that time has asked for ratification but it languished in the hands of Governor Hunt today.

Official copies of the legislative action was sent to Secretary of State J. H. Kerby for apparent transmittal to other state and to congress, but Kerby turned the papers over to the governor. Those close to the executive said he would probably "pocket" the resolution.

Governor Hunt claims the resolution is not lawful. He will probably veto or ignore the legislative action, it was said, and refer the matter to a referendum at the next state election.

Publication Of Tax Reports to Be Made Again

WASHINGTON, March 13.—Total income tax payments will be posted this year the same as last and under the same regulations, it was learned at the treasury today.

Treasury officials pointed out, however, that no publicity will be given in any case until the taxpayer had paid in full, making it probable that the income taxes of wealthier persons will not be open to inspection until near the end of the year.

Present Senate Not to Take Up Court Proposal

WASHINGTON, March 13.—There is little likelihood that the world court will be considered at this session of the senate, Senator Borah, chairman of the foreign relations committee, said after conference with President Coolidge at the White House today.

Borah said that president had recommended that the Lausanne treaty be taken up before adjournment and that an attempt to consider ratification of this treaty would be made.

CHICAGO 'FLU' TOLL INCREASES

EASTERN STYLES OF NAVAL TAILORING CREATE FURORE ON STREETS OF SAN DIEGO

SAN DIEGO, March 13.—Friday, the thirteenth, meant a good time for 10,000 bluejackets from the combined United States fleets here today. A large proportion of the men had not been ashore for several weeks. The eastern sailors with a navy tailoring cut quite their own, composed most of the bluejacket crowd in San Diego last night.

The boys from New York, Norfolk, Baltimore and other Atlantic ports were quite recognizable with their trousers cut a little bit tighter around the thighs and the bell bottoms a little more "belled."

Before the battleships and the light cruisers sail Monday for gunnery practice, about every man of the massive crews will be granted a chance to breathe the land air of San Diego, it was said by naval officials today.

Undertaker and Bootlegger Use Same Quarters

SAN FRANCISCO, March 13.—A bootlegger and an undertaker have been arrested here by prohibition agents and charged with being partners in violating the prohibition law.

A federal agent who sampled some of the bootlegger's liquor lost all the skin off his nose and started to turn gray. "If he had taken more than a sample the other partner would have had a customer sure," said Charles Goff, chief dry agent.

The bootlegger gave the name of Dan Schaeffer. The undertaker is D. B. Blois. Both operated from the same establishment.

COLORADO COMPACT RESTS WITH HUNT

PHOENIX, March 13.—Fate of the Arizona legislature's resolution endorsing the Colorado river compact, with provision for supplemental agreement between California and Nevada, was in the hands of Governor Hunt today.

Official copies of the legislative action was sent to Secretary of State J. H. Kerby for apparent transmittal to other state and to congress, but Kerby turned the papers over to the governor. Those close to the executive said he would probably "pocket" the resolution.

Governor Hunt claims the resolution is not lawful. He will probably veto or ignore the legislative action, it was said, and refer the matter to a referendum at the next state election.

Wampas Baby Star Dies of Overwork

HOLLYWOOD, March 13.—Lucille Rickson, 17, Wampas "baby" screen star of 1924, died at her home here today after a long illness.

The young actress has been an invalid for nearly a year as the result of overwork in pictures. Her mother died suddenly at her bedside two weeks ago of heart disease.

Lucille Rickson began her career in the films at the age of four, playing in the early "kiddie" pictures. From "kiddie" parts she went to juveniles and later to ingenues.

A year ago she was picked as one of the most promising of the younger film actresses, and her services were sought by many directors. On the threshold of fame, she was stricken shortly afterwards with a nervous breakdown, and had been an invalid since.

WILL UNITE TO BATTLE NEW PLAGUE

Public Co-operation Urged; 112 New Cases Are Reported Today

CHICAGO, March 13.—Business men, police, the fire department and all physicians were asked today by Health Commissioner Herman Bundesen to assist in the fight against the influenza-like outbreak which is taking an increasing toll in life and illness here.

A total of 112 new cases of influenza and pneumonia were reported to Dr. Bundesen up to 10 a. m. Several more deaths in addition to 279 fatalities reported since March 1, were reported to the health department.

"It is not the war-time flu," Dr. Bundesen said. "Only one case has been diagnosed as of the 1918 influenza type. The war-time influenza was characterized by toxic condition of the victim, whose lungs quickly filled with water and he drowned in his own secretions."

"The present epidemic should be easy to combat if the public would help. The malady is highly contagious and if the people who feel the symptoms would go to bed and keep away from contacts we could stop the epidemic very soon. But sufferers continue to get around, expectorating, spreading the germs, with the result that scores and scores of people are infected daily."

CHICAGO, March 13.—Grain prices on the Chicago board of trade today tumbled in one of the biggest breaks of any single day since the war.

May wheat was the heaviest sufferer, closing at from $1.67 to $1.66 1-4, compared with a close of $1.81 1-2 yesterday. Against May wheat's loss of 14 1-2 cents for the day, other grains registered the following drops:

July wheat 7 3-4; September 6 3-8 cents. May corn 6 7-8; July 7; September 6 3-4.

PRICES TAKE BIG PLUNGE IN K. C. KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 13.—The price of May wheat took a big plunge downward today on the local market. Opening at $1.70 a bushel, the closing price yesterday, the quotations fell to $1.62 1-2 in the first half hour's trading, then to $1.58 3-4, 11 1-4 cents lower than yesterday.

The low figure today was 38 5-8 cents lower than the top price this year of $1.95 3-8, reached on January 20.

Rains in the southwest and a large quantity of wheat on the market in Liverpool were given as the cause for the slump.

ALLEGED SLAYER BELIEVED NABBED

RENO, Nev., March 13.—Word has been received here that a man believed to be Roy H. Gilbert, wanted for the murder of George Okeson, of San Jose, Cal., has been arrested in Akron, Ark. Further identification details are being awaited before extradition proceedings are started.

Okeson left San Jose with a man known only as R. Gilbert early in January ostensibly to develop a mine near Sparks, Nev. Gilbert disappeared after cashing a $500 check Okeson had given him and Indian trackers a few days later found Okeson's body with a bullet hole in the back, buried in a shallow grave on the desert near Sparks.

Thirteen Jinx Very present In Theft Trial

LOS ANGELES, March 13.—Gregory Davis, janitor, went on trial today charged with robbing a safe of $2175, and he feels the case is already lost because it's Friday, the 13th.

The robbery of which Davis is accused took place on Friday, October 13, last. Davis disappeared from his home that day and rented apartment 13 at another address.

He left their on November 13, and was arrested the following December 13 at San Antonio, Texas, on January 13 he was indicted. Today, being both Friday and the 13th, he goes to trial, with 13 witnesses subpoenaed to testify against him.

ARGUE VITAL POINT IN OIL LEASE TRIAL

FEDERAL COURT ROOM, Cheyenne, Wyo., March 13.—Argument over one of the crucial points in the Teapot Dome suit—whether bank records and statements relating to alleged financial transactions involving Albert B. Fall, former secretary of the interior, and Harry F. Sinclair shall be admitted as testimony—was begun by government counsel shortly after court opened this morning.

Counsel for the Sinclair interests objected to the introduction of such testimony on the ground that it was "hearsay evidence" and had no bearing on the present suit in which the government is attempting to break the lease of the Mammoth Oil company on the Teapot oil reserve on the ground it was obtained through fraud.

The evidence in question is admittedly of an important nature and government attorneys were prepared to make a hard fight for its admission over the defense objection.

LOS ANGELES, March 13.—Los Angeles has a population of 1,195,344, according to the 1925 edition of the city directory, issued today.

This marks an increase of 47,223 over last year. R. F. Montgomery, who publishes the directory, estimates that at the present rate of progress, Los Angeles will have 2,000,000 inhabitants by 1940.

Amnesty Bill for Ex-Governor Up to His Wife

AUSTIN, Tex., March 13.—Governor Miriam A. Ferguson had upon her desk today for signature the Woodward bill to restore the citizenship of her husband, former Governor James E. Ferguson, lost by virtue of his impeachment and removal from office in 1917 for misuse of state funds.

The house late yesterday placed its stamp of approval upon the bill by a vote of 78 to 51.

DAIRY INTERESTS CLASH WITH MARGARINE MAKERS ON LEGISLATIVE BILLS

SACRAMENTO, March 13.—"Give us the coconut on our cake. If you must use the oils of the South Sea Islands, make them into soap to wash our hands. Keep the farmer boy milking the cows, with a price for butter fat so that he can afford to remain on the land."

That was the essence of a plea delivered on behalf of the dairy men of California by Archie Robinson, Davis farmer, whose words are today still ringing in the legislative halls of California's capitol as the result of public hearings on two bills further regulating and taxing margarine.

JUDICIARY NOMINATION IS ADVERSE

Opposition Seems to Be Unchanged As Coolidge Pushes For Confirmation

PRESSURE FAILS TO BRING ABOUT SWING

Little Group of "Rebels" Say Matter Is One of Principle, Not Party

WASHINGTON, March 13.—The senate went into executive session this afternoon to take up the nomination of Charles Beecher Warren to be attorney general.

Consideration of the nomination was laid over until tomorrow morning.

WASHINGTON, D.C., March 13.—With the nomination of Charles B. Warren as attorney general again rejected by the senate judiciary committee, Republican leaders apparently lost hope today and a movement was started to force a final vote by tomorrow night and adjourn.

The judiciary committee voted 9 to 7 to present an adverse report upon the nomination, counselling its rejection by the senate.

In view of this preliminary defeat at the outset and of the fact that the senate is unchanged, despite the extreme pressure from the White House, some Republicans saw no reason to drag out the controversy in a prolonged parliamentary fight.

Senator Curtis, Republican generalissimo, announced that a large group of senators felt the senate should dispose of the nomination and adjourn finally Saturday.

May Weaken Defense Curtis feels sure, however, that he can keep a quorum present next week and is undecided what to do.

Several leading adherents of Warren having pressing business elsewhere next week, say they may be forced to leave, thus weakening the defense.

The pressure which has been exerted upon Senators Borah, McMaster, Norbeck, Norris, Curtis and Hiram Johnson has failed, Borah and McMaster were called down to the White House this morning by the President to see what could be done, but it is understood both informed the chief executive that their objection to Warren was a fundamental matter of principle and that party faith was not involved.

There is a highly technical question involved in the manner in which the senate vote should be taken.

Senator Walsh, Montana, Democrat, will present the committee report advising against confirmation, a little after 3 p. m. under the rule, it must lay over until tomorrow before consideration can be begun but by unanimous consideration could be begun immediately.

The session of the judiciary committee lasted only about an hour. Senators Thomas Walsh, Montana, Democrat, raised the question of the President's constitutional right to resubmit a cabinet nomination to the same senate that previously repudiated it.

Here is How Vote Stood But he did not press for a decision in the committee. He will raise the issue on the floor.

Police Officer Is Taken Away By Liquor Gang

LOS ANGELES, March 13.—Police of Los Angeles and surrounding towns went on a determined manhunt today for a band of bootleggers who kidnapped Officer Denny of the local force.

Denny, who was unarmed, was abducted by the band after a brief fist encounter when he tried to place the man under arrest.

He was beaten and thrown into the rear seat of the bootleggers' automobile, which was driven away at high speed towards the beach. There were several cases of liquor in the machine.

A woman operative with Denny at the time of the attempted arrests and kidnapping reported the case to police.

Associated with the entertaining hostess, Mrs. H. W. Head in greeting Daughters of the Confederacy yesterday afternoon at the Head home on East Sixth street, were the two co-hostesses, Mrs. Ben Tarter and Mrs. C. E. Price. The business session was ably conducted by the president, Mrs. Rebecca Pope who took the opportunity to read a gracious and charming letter from the state president, Mrs. Garfield, expressing appreciation of the courtesies shown her on her visit south, and especially of the reception arranged in her honor by the Emma A. Sansom chapter. Planning for representation at the state convention to open in May at San Jose, Mrs. L. A. Mayfield and Mrs. Alice Turner were named as delegates with Mrs. J. W. Taylor and Miss Percy Head as alternates. Mrs. Alice Overshiner, Mrs. L. A. Mayfield, Mrs. Victor Montgomery and Mrs. Head were chosen to offer the chapter's condolences and sympathy to the family of the late

Woman's Union

Wednesday's all-day meeting of the Woman's union, held in the bungalow of the Congregational church was one of unusual interest. Mrs. F. P. Nickey, the president, presided at a very satisfactory business session. The treasurer's report was encouraging. Interest is growing in community service, a special feature of this year's work. Mr. Schrock came in for a short time to thank the workers for the efficient help they had rendered in the recent Wednesday night dinners which have been a social and educational success. At noon luncheon was served by Mesdames Petrie, Kinney Robinson, Wilson, Thuesenhausen and Miss Shaver.

At two o'clock the members convened for the missionary program led by Mrs. Tope, president of the department. Mrs. Powell led the devotional service with the topic, "Victories of Christian Friendliness in China." She told of the work in hospitals and schools which had broken down the barriers found in the inherent and acquired attitude of the very conservative Chinese people.

A beautiful solo, "My Task," sung by Mrs. La Rue Mayer accompanied by Miss Carrie Seaton gave a fitting close to the devotional service. Mrs. Cross, in a review of a chapter of "Ming Kwong," delightfully continued the optimistic thought of missionary work. Mrs. N. Beales, as delegate, gave a very entertaining report of a joint executive session of the Foreign and Home Missionary boards and the contemplated changes in business administration. Mrs. C. F. Crose then transmitted the radio messages from W. U. B. F. is a report of that wonderful convention of Foreign Missions held in the Congregational church of which President Coolidge is a member at Washington. President Coolidge's address at this conference showed alike to Home and Foreign delegates his interest and faith in missions.

A beautifully engraved Standard of Service, the work and gift of Mrs. Stella Bowles, has been received. Col. W. F. Heathman, whose death cast a saddening gloom on the society of which he was such an ardent supporter.

Following the refreshment hour when chicken salad, sandwiches and coffee were served by the hostess trio, a unique entertaining feature was enjoyed when Mrs. Charles Johnson sang a group of charming solos with her young son, Avery Johnson playing the accompaniments. Mother and son made a most interesting pair and their talents greatly pleased the assembled guests.

cently hung in the bungalow and is very much appreciated. After the reading of the minutes of the last meeting the department adjourned to meet April 1.

Missionary Society

Spurgeon

Opening at 10 o'clock a. m. the recent Missionary meeting at Spurgeon Memorial church offered an interesting all-day session from the Bible study led by Mrs. J. W. Law to the final number of the afternoon's literary program.

Korea formed the subject of the missionary study in the forenoon hours with Mrs. G. P. Aimes and Mrs. L. C. Masters as leaders. Luncheon at mid-day was made a pleasant social feature and in the afternoon Mrs. A. A. Jones directed the program aided by Mesdames Horton, Swartzbaugh and McConnell.

First Christian

Members and friends of the First Christian Missionary society who met in regular session Wednesday afternoon listened to a program, well prepared by Mrs. W. M. Hamilton. The topic for the afternoon being China, Mrs. Hamilton gave the location of Nanking, and followed up with a very interesting description of that city. She also told of the healings as practiced by the Chinese, and how the pioneer missionaries have been followed up by the noble band of men and women medical missionaries of today in China.

Mrs. T. D. Knights presented the educational work, centering her talk around the life of F. M. Meigs, who joined the China mission in 1887, and had a large part in shaping the educational work in China, and who labored unceasingly until his death in 1915. Little Miss Bonnie Hamilton delighted her hearers with her musical number on the piano, "Little Chinaman."

Mrs. Porter announced that the spring convention of the churches in the Santa Ana district would be held Friday, May 15, in the First Christian church in Santa Ana.

Music Recital

One of the largest crowds that ever gathered at Chandler's Music room was present last Saturday night to enjoy the last of the delightful recitals presented by vocal pupils of Madame Manuela Enderle, violin pupils of Olmae Enderle, and pupils of expression of Harriet Owens Enderle.

Violin numbers were charmingly given by Little Miss Melody Lentz, Stuart Peek and Mary Cianfoni who played "Gypsy Dance" by Koeler, "Gavotte" by Elkon and "Minuet" by Bocherini.

Readings were given by Dorothy Maroon, who gave the "Highway Man," and taking the place of Bert Haste, who was unable to attend, George Munro again delighted the audience with his clever interpretations.

An added attraction of the program was the "Minute Waltz" by Chopin played by Neva Fay Gerdis, a piano pupil of Ione Tunison Peek.

The vocal numbers were as follows: "Madrigal" (French song) by Chaminade and "The Big Brown Bear" by Anna Zucca, charmingly sung by Miss Virginia Bailey, soprano, Miss Babe Daniels, possessor of a beautiful mezzo soprano voice sang "Serenata" by Tosti (in Italian); "Lolita" by Bucci Peccia and "Sylvia" by Oley Speaks were excellently sung by Edward Delgado whose magnificent baritone voice is becoming well known in Santa Ana.

"Frulengshert" (The Spring) by Becker was sung in German by Miss Elizabeth Siegel whose dramatic soprano voice blended beautifully with the violin obbligato played by Jack Langley. Especially enjoyed were the quartet numbers "Good Night Beloved" Bridgman and "Poor Ned" by Kierner, sung by Arthur J. Smith, Robert A. Jones, Robert Bradford and Edward Delgado.

The last number on the program was an ensemble number made up of a group of lovely young girls whose well trained voices blended beautifully. They were Catherine Maroon, Edward Ward, Virginia Bailey, Lilla Ruiz, sopranos; Hazel Miller, Horlene Daniels, Gladys Merriman, mezzo sopranos; Emma Rickar, Eunice Hylton, Gertrude Scheffer, contraltos.

Different pupils have been presented in the three successive recitals and all of them have shown talent and careful training in the hands of their teachers who deserve full credit for their work. The accompanist for the evening was again Ione Tunison Peek.

Pupil Recital

Miss Etta Hale will present a group of pupils from her expression class in a humorous recital tomorrow evening at 7:45 o'clock in the music room of the Chandler Music store, Fourth and Ross streets. The theme was "Institutional" Inter-mission was "Administrations" and was developed in an interesting manner by the pastor.

Mrs. C. Carlson was welcomed to membership and introduced during a pleasant social hour when Mrs. W. Peterson and Mrs. Otto Schroeder served appetizing refreshments.

THE SLEEVELESS "PULL-OVER"

Answering an esteemed inquirer, for some reason or other the misbelief is current among many men that formal or semi-formal evening dress should not or need not be worn on Sunday. Doubtless this impression dates back to the time when the frock coat or Prince Albert constituted ceremonial dress on Sunday for both day and night. Then and thus, a confessedly evening turnout was not necessary. Today, polite practice recognizes no distinction between week-days and Sundays, any more than it differentiates between winter and summer. Then, again, the modern man devotes the holiday now to recreation, rather than mere meditation, and if one goes to smart affairs and mixes with sophisticated people, evening dress on Sunday is ordained by good form exactly as on other nights.

Indeed, to assume formal or semi-formal evening clothes, far from detracting, rather adds to solemn observance, paying a right-ful tribute to the day of which Henry Carey wistfully wrote, "Of the day that comes betwixt a Saturday and Monday". By all means wear evening dress on Sunday. It is being done by our best people. It enhances the dignity of the day. It is a correct and cultural custom.

It is a far jump from evening clothes to sweaters, especially when it isn't leap year. The sleeveless knitted garment, reproduced here, is a smart, light slip for spring and early summer. It is designed for men who like their arms left free and who, perhaps, prefer to wear a sweater under the coat, instead of the usual way. Thus, it becomes a sort of woolen waistcoat and serves a score of practical purposes round the golf course and the country.

Here you see the V-neck garment having a brightly colored border that harmonizes with the stripes around the bottom. Such colors may be club, regimental, college, fraternity or blazer stripes, or they may have no special significance. "Woolies", as they are termed in England, are indispensable to the comfort of the sportsman and he should possess several of them both for an agreeable chance-off and to match different suits.

Charles Hansen, 30, was arrested here last night and is being held in the Orange county jail pending the arrival of Los Angeles authorities. He is said to be wanted there on an embezzlement charge.

RECLAMATION OF BASIN NOW NEARS FINISH

The reclamation of Sutter Basin lands, in Sutter county, development of which began in 1912, is practically completed and the land is now on sale.

With a climate favorable to agriculture, warm days and cool nights, the temperature is warm enough to insure long growing seasons and permitting the farmer to cultivate nearly every day of the year, according to those behind the project.

The reclamation of the lands called for the construction of about 60 miles of levees, 182 miles of irrigation canals, 250 miles of deep and frequent drainage canals and ditches, immense irrigation and drainage pump plants, roads and other building enterprises that has cost many millions of dollars.

The lands in the Sutter Basin were for ages overflowed by the back water from the Sacramento and Feather rivers which each year deposited a thin coating of silt. The result of these accumulations is a deposit varying in depth from a few feet to 20 feet.

One irrigation pumping plant installed on the property, and electrically operated, has a capacity of 18,000,000 gallons per hour, drawing from the Sacramento river and pumping it into the main north, east and west canals, from which it is distributed into laterals and sub-laterals and finally to the lands in each track.

The irrigation system, among the best to be found in this country, is owned by the Sutter Mutual Water company, one share of stock of which is attached to each acre and is included in the price of the land. The company is operated on a co-operated basis, making the cost of water unusually low to consumers.

The Sutter Basin lands are served by a branch of the Southern Pacific railroad, running through the center and built to serve this project. A station or side track is located every few miles, providing easy transportation adjacent to every part of the land.

Continue Church Training Series

The 500 persons present at the Church Training classes at the First Methodist church last Wednesday, voted unanimously for a continuance of the program for two more weeks. It was thought unwise to close them before Easter and the matter was presented to those interested. In view of this expression of sentiment the committee on arrangements is bending every effort to make the subsequent meetings more attractive and interesting.

The last class will be held Wednesday of Easter week, at which time a pageant will be given by the class in pageantry and other members of the Sunday School. The pageant is entitled "The Dawning" (a pageant of the Resurrection) and will be directed by Miss Holly Lash.

MANY ASPIRE TO POSITION OF RECORDER

John G. Mitchell, former mayor of Santa Ana and former president of the American National Bank, and J. Fleetwood Bell, president of the same bank and a former city clerk at Orange, are applicants for appointment as city recorder to fill the vacancy in that office created by the death yesterday of Col. W. F. Heathman, it became known today. Bell no longer is active in the bank.

While W. B. Harwood, a member of the city police force, is the only man who has filed a formal application for appointment, several others have called upon Mayor J. W. Tubbs with reference to appointment or have announced their intention of seeking the position.

Among them are the following: Clinton "Red" Innes, who has been a candidate for different city and county offices in recent elections.

A. B. Berry, a member of the editorial staff of The Register and who is familiar with a great deal of the detail of the office.

H. D. Traveller, well known in Santa Ana through his activities as tire agent, automobile salesman and real estate dealer.

Jesse Elliott, in police work here for many years and at present one of the constables of Santa Ana township.

J. E. Prentice, former shoe merchant and horse dealer in this city and now engaged in the loan business.

J. R. Fowler, old-time resident and for many years a deputy sheriff under C. E. Jackson, former sheriff.

The city council will make the appointment at its meeting next Monday evening, it was stated by Mayor Tubbs.

Got 30 days Leave.
At the meeting of the council last Monday evening, Heathman was given a thirty-day leave of absence, because of his illness, and recommendation was made that he appoint Jack Landell, justice of the peace of San Juan Capistrano township, to serve during his absence. Landell has not appeared in the local court, with the result that there has not been any session of the court since Heathman became sick two weeks ago. The office carries a salary of $150 a month.

TO PRESS CHARGES IN FRUIT THEFTS

With the bringing of E. Gomez, 54, and Salvador Valenzuela, 22, Mexicans, to the Orange county jail today from Los Angeles, where they were arrested, the first move was made towards conviction of alleged thieves, who for the past several months have been robbing avocado orchards in Orange county.

Two sacks of fruit, said to have been stolen from the ranch of Mrs. W. A. Harper, near Yorba Linda, was recovered in Los Angeles and has been brought here as evidence. Valenzuela and Gomez, are alleged to have sold the fruit to a Japanese grocer at 220 Sunset boulevard, this sale leading to their arrest.

Both are being held here on a felony warrant, and Dan Adams, deputy sheriff, said today that fruit valued at $500 had been stolen from the Harper place.

Other ranchers in the county, who for the past several weeks have been missing fruit from their groves are: B. H. Sharpless, A. F. Manz, L. Lindner and the Murphy Oil company and the Union Oil company.

ANOTHER RUSSIAN REFUGEE.
LOS ANGELES, March 12.—Count Alexander Juladski, first cousin to the late Czar Nicholas, arrived at Los Angeles harbor, aboard the liner Emma Alexander.

During excavations in London recently, the shoulder blade of a mammoth, living 10,000 years ago, was unearthed.

Pleads Guilty To Speeding as Jury Disagrees

Marshal Stutsman, Los Angeles attorney, deeply resented a speeding charge, accusing him of driving his car at a rate of 48 miles per hour on the highways of this county, so he demanded a jury trial.

Yesterday, in Justice K. E. Morrison's court, Stutsman conducted his own defense and spent nearly the entire day selecting his jury. Many murder juries receive less attention. Deputy District Attorney D. G. Wetlin, for the prosecution, looked wearily on.

After the jury was picked there were a few minutes of daylight left and the case presented. The jury disagreed, standing 11 for conviction to 1 for acquittal.

Then Stutsman pleaded guilty and paid a fine of $40, much to the chagrin of the lone juror who had stood out steadfastly for a verdict of not guilty.

The first brick house in America, according to historians, was built in 1832 by Governor Craddock at Medford, Mass.

Receptions By Eleanor Young Elliott

State D. A. R. Regent
Complimented at
Smart Affair

Honoring Mrs. James H. Shreve of San Diego, state vice regent of the national society Daughters of the American Revolution, members of the Santa Ana chapter assembled on a recent afternoon at the home of Mrs. William E. Otis, where they enjoyed an event which combined social charm with patriotic interest. The honor guest was welcomed by Mrs. Alice Hatch, the chapter regent, and a trio of former regents composed of the hostess, Mrs. Otis, Mrs. Ella Campbell and Mrs. L. G. Swales.

Of chief interest during the program hour was the fine address given by the honor guest in which she revealed marked ability as a speaker. This ability, combined with rare personal charm, makes Mrs. Shreve most happily fitted for the state office she holds. Mrs. Shreve congratulated Santa Ana chapter on its regent, declaring Mrs. Hatch to be one on whose judgment she has come to rely for counsel, because she has found her to be one who thinks clearly and speaks courageously.

In addition to the honor guest, other interesting guests of the afternoon included Mrs. Emeline Bancroft of Los Angeles and Mrs. Carmichael of Fullerton, each of whom is a chapter regent. Mrs. Harmon, who is a frequent visitor to Santa Ana chapter, took this occasion to present the chapter with a beautiful silk flag to be used in connection with their meetings. Mrs. Carmichael told of the newly organized chapter in Fullerton and asked that they be given the privilege of joining the Santa Ana chapter in their attendance at the semi-annual citizenship classes.

Interesting reports of the recent state conference held in Oakland were given by Mrs. Hudson and Mrs. C. E. Brown, who attended as delegates. Mrs. Hudson gave the formal report of the conference while Mrs. Brown spoke of the visit of the delegates to the immigrant station on Angel Island where they were greeted by Miss Maurie, often referred to as the "Angel of Angel Island." Miss Maurie mentioned the need for practical clothing, especially for men and particularly in large sizes. Mrs. Brown offered to pack and send a box of such clothes if those having articles to dispose of would send them to her home, 142 West Pine street.

Musical numbers by Mrs. Herbert Sammis and her guest, Miss Mary Lane of Denver, Colo., were a delightful part of the program. By request Mrs. Sammis sang "A Russian Lullaby" and "June," both of which are admirably suited to her clear soprano voice. She was accompanied by Mrs. W. B. Snow. Miss Lane delighted her audience with two numbers and the sweet notes of her violin brought forth an impromptu obligato from a golden throated canary, singing from his bower in an adjoining room.

Following the program came a delightful social hour, during which refreshments were served from a table beautifully adorned with rare spring blossoms. Presiding at the tea urns were Mesdames Campbell and Harmon, while Mrs. J. N. Bartholomew and the Misses Katherine Edwards, Mary Harris and Vanche Plumb ably assisted the hostess. The atmosphere of springtime which prevailed throughout the home was further emphasized by the presentation of bouquets of fragrant blossoms to each of the special guests.

Happy Children Share Birthday Party

The recitation of Jean Ingelow's "Seven Times One Are Seven" by her sweet-faced and gentle grandmother, invalided for many years in a wheel chair, was one of the charming features of little Constance Barnett's celebration of her seventh birthday on Tuesday afternoon at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Yoch, 111 East Eleventh street.

The birthday party was held from three until five o'clock, and besides the reading of the beautiful little poem by Mrs. Yoch, each child recited, sang a song or performed, some little interesting "stunt," after which merry games were enjoyed until the children were called to the dining room, where they admired their table, gay with St. Patrick's emblems. They were given jaunty green caps to wear, harmonized with the green table cloth and napkins. Ice cream and cake were served in abundance to the little folk.

The little honor maid was shown over with lovely gifts from her guests who were Marian Schoettler, Teresa Le Gay, Jeannette Klat, Florine and Geraldine Haupt, Bonnie Hamilton, Helen Markel and Elizabeth Borchard.

Loma Las Flores Is Again the Center Of Hospitality

Charming in every detail was the 1 o'clock luncheon given Wednesday by Mrs. G. W. Wells at "Loma Las Flores," the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lambert.

The event was in honor of Mrs. J. L. B. Ellis of Kiowa, Kansas, who with Mr. Ellis is spending several weeks enjoying California's beauties.

Mrs. Wells, gowned in lovely lavender silk and silver lace, graciously received her guests in the spacious drawing-room where the massive mountain lilacs and acacia decorated occasional tables while the same delicate spring flowers banked the fernery in the adjoining sun-room. The shaded lights, the soft glow of candles and the genial blaze in the fireplace made a picture long to be remembered.

Appointments of the three course luncheon further accentuated the color motif of lavender and gold.

Yellow flowers in a cut-crystal bowl centering the table were flanked by tall gold candles; cunning baskets of nuts and bon-bons were of gold; place cards were tied with gold ribbon and favors were yellow acacia blossoms with suggestive of sunshine and spring, even to the candied violets on beds of yellow whipped cream decorating the final course of this dainty luncheon.

Mrs. Wells was assisted in her hostess duties by her daughters, Mrs. Ray Lambert and Mrs. Edward Abbott of Glendale.

Later all assembled on the terrace for smoking and enjoyment of the scenery from the picturesque home. As hostess and guests are "old time friends" happy reminiscences pervaded the entire event.

Among those invited were Mrs. J. L. B. Ellis of Kiowa, Kans., Mrs. J. H. Nichols, Mrs. A. T. Wilson, Miss Betty Crowdon and Mrs. A. J. Crowdon of Long Beach; Mrs. W. R. George of Escalante; Mrs. M. W. Wells of Coronado; Mrs. Carrie Rumsey, Mrs. M. O. Wells, Miss Ida Nay and Mrs. Meade Hays of Santa Ana and Mrs. H. E. Mathews of Tustin.

Mr. Wells had for his guests Mr. Ellis of Kiowa, Kans., and his brother M. O. Wells of Asheville, N. C.

Calumpit Folk Enjoy Tea

Mrs. Mamie McDonnell, Mrs. Marie Lindquist and Mrs. Ann Lahey were hostesses Wednesday afternoon at a friendly gathering of Calumpit auxiliary members at the McDonnell home, 1002 West Chestnut street where the March social tea was enjoyed.

Sweet peas and yellow daisies were the flowers used in attractive time to stitching on quilt blocks and fashioning cases for the auxiliary silver.

The dainty tea menu served by the hostess trio was enjoyed by Mesdames Jane Winters, Edith Ellison, Anna Patmor, Bertha Dugdale, Emma Kellogg, Maude Miller, Nellie Kenney, Bertha Dixon, Beulah Deaver, Carrie Adams, Marie Mear, Margaret Donovan, Alice Gay, Nannie Reed, Lula Chatlain, Odella Markwalder, Jean Tantlinger, and the following guests, Mesdames Jennie Silkwood, Freda Barger, Nellie Spauld, Alice Rotzler, Gladys Kaufman and Anna Nelson.

Church Folk Enjoy New Social Rooms

Initiating their new kitchen and dining room equipment, members of the church of the United Brethren church to the number of nearly 100, gathered at the church social rooms Wednesday night for a most happy evening with the pastor, Rev. Logan Harter, as master of ceremonies.

It was the first time the social rooms had been put to such a delightful purpose and the feeling of rejoicing was expressed in the whole-hearted singing of the Doxology after which the Rev. Mr. Harter led in prayer. Much appreciation was expressed to Mrs. O. M. Harrison, Mrs. J. A. Gammell and Mrs. Tom Lacy for their excellent taste and discrimination in selecting the pretty china and silver.

The delicious dinner served had as a surprise feature the baked fish which had been caught early in the day by Mr. Edward Lieb whose skill as a fisherman was attested by the number which he brought in to be baked to a turn by Mrs. Lieb and Mrs. J. W. Spencer.

The dinner was followed by an interesting program opening with a piano solo by Miss Elsie Harter followed by talks by O. B. Wonder, Miss Constance Ward, Mrs. Nora Randall and J. H. Noble. These were interspersed with musical numbers including duets, quartettes and solos by a group of young men, Hugh Reynolds, Lyle Kelley, Joseph Pink and Curtis Vaughn with Miss Harter at the piano. The entire program was a most enjoyable one and closed with a prayer offered by P. L. Brock which was a fitting finale to a happy evening.

Walter S. Spicer Wins Talented Musician For His Bride

Coming as a delightful surprise to their friends, was the announcement of a quiet wedding in Whittier Wednesday morning when at a 10 o'clock ceremony, Mrs. Fay Gough Hazzard of that city became the bride of Walter S. Spicer, one of Santa Ana's prominent young business men.

Only a few immediate relatives of the young people assembled at the home of the Rev. Ernest E. Day, pastor of the Whittier Congregational church, for the quiet ceremony. Mrs. Hazzard wore a lovely frock of soft georgette crepe, fashioned along extremely simple lines, and carried an arm bouquet of fragrant spring blossoms in pastel tints.

After a charmingly served wedding breakfast, Mr. Spicer and his bride took their departure for a motor honeymoon whose wanderings will remain their own secret until they return to Santa Ana where the new home will be established.

Mr. Spicer is one of the popular members of the Lions club whose members yesterday enjoyed smoking rather unusual cigars in honor of their comrade's marriage, each cigar having a spike concealed in its heart, suggesting his club name of "Spike Spicer." As secretary of the Barr Lumber company, he holds a most responsible position in the city's business life.

His bride will be welcomed to the circle of his friends both because of her charm and of her musical ability as she is a violinist of note and for several years has been connected with the violin department of Whittier college. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Gough of Rivera who were in attendance at the nuptial ceremony.

Young Matron Greets Club Members In Pretty Home

A charming little party was that given last night by Mrs. J. W. Dickson (Miss Evelyn Hoffman) when she greeted the members of the Thursday Evening club and a few guests at her home on McFadden street. Quantities of delicately-tinted spring flowers were used in the adornment of the pretty home with St. Patrick favors enough in evidence to call attention to the favorite holiday of the Emerald Isle.

Needlework and friendly chat caused the hours to fly and late in the evening the young matron had the pleasure of using some of her pretty bridal china in serving a dainty supper on individual trays, each bearing a St. Patrick favor.

Enjoying the hospitality of Mrs. Dickson were the Misses Maurine Mathes, Nell Bates, Eileen Young, Edna Dickson, Murrell Rash, Thelma Simmons, Eleanor Widney, Mrs. Carl Wiesseman, a recent bride who was Miss Grace Ludwick and one guest, Mrs. George R. Dickson.

Parent-Teachers Assn.

Pretty songs and recitations by children of the John Muir second grade enlivened the P.T.A. program at that school Wednesday afternoon where second-grade mothers were hostesses. Mrs. Everett White sang a pleasing solo and two interesting papers were "Are Modern Parents Failures?" by Mrs. A. H. Allen and "Down Grade" by Mrs. Lemon.

The papers were followed by an lively period when discussions were in order. Plans for a father's night program were made for the night of April 14 at the school. Coffee and cake were served by the hostess committee during the social hour.

Detroit Wedding Of Local Interest

Students at Santa Ana high school back in the years 1909 and 1910 will be keenly interested in the recent marriage of one of their classmates, Miss Jessie Elizabeth Whitney who went to school while spending the time in this city with her aunt, Mrs. Belle D. Thomson, 1017 East Chestnut street.

The marriage of Miss Whitney and James W. Bates, a successful business man of Detroit, Mich., was an event of January 17, 1925 at the Detroit home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar E. Whitney, but announcements reached local relatives and friends only recently.

Miss Whitney completed her high school studies in Detroit after leaving Santa Ana, and after college work preparatory to teaching, accepted a position on the teaching staff of Cass high school, Detroit, where she has taught ever since. She will complete the present school year after which she and Mr. Bates will make their home in Seattle and it is the hope of her Santa Ana relatives that their western trip may be so routed as to bring them to this city for a visit ere they settle in the north.

Parent-Teachers Assn.

Pretty songs and recitations by children of the John Muir second grade enlivened the P.T.A. program at that school Wednesday afternoon where second-grade mothers were hostesses. Mrs. Everett White sang a pleasing solo and two interesting papers were "Are Modern Parents Failures?" by Mrs. A. H. Allen and "Down Grade" by Mrs. Lemon.

The papers were followed by an lively period when discussions were in order. Plans for a father's night program were made for the night of April 14 at the school. Coffee and cake were served by the hostess committee during the social hour.

WEIGHS HIS FOOD SO THAT FAT FOLK MAY LEARN JUST
WHAT IS BEST FOR DIET

In Great Name of Science Offers Himself to Show What Certain Foods Do to One's Mind and Midriff Over Two Years

CHICAGO, March 13.—Alack and alas! 'Tis a sorry day for the human laboratory here.

His name is Harold G. C. Holck just starting two-year semi-fast during which his daily diet was calorically regulated and balanced to the hair's breadth.

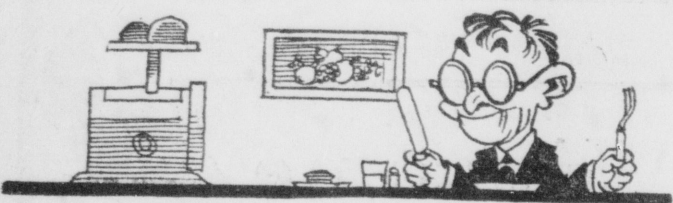

In the great name of science, Holck has offered himself in sacrifice on the altar of wisdom that those who crave enlightenment on what food does to both one's mind and midriff can get the dope straight.

He has survived a complete 24 months of cocoa by the ounce and sugar in his tea by the gram.

Never once during that time has he supped or dined without his trusty scales close by to say him nay.

Holck is a student in the physiological department of the University of Chicago.

There grave savants with their glasses and gadgets plumb him over daily.

Food may be food but little is known about what it does for or against you once it passes the teeth on a farewell dive into the stomach.

Some foods are supposed to give you that glandish feeling. They make you spry as a mountain goat. Others stimulate the mind and dispose a tendency to shadow box with such grave things as problems of the age, flappers and the like.

At least that is what scientists have believed but never proved until Holck came along and offered to be "it" in the game of human laboratory popularly known as "count the calories."

"While I have to keep an exact measurement of all the food that I eat, I have been held to no restriction," he says. "However, I am required to eat simple foods so that we may exactly understand their composition."

So far Holck has been held down to eating by weight only. Once in a great while he has a square, scientific meal.

But next spring he will descend to real starvation. That, when he is put on a schedule of eating only when he is hungry and stopping the moment he has had enough.

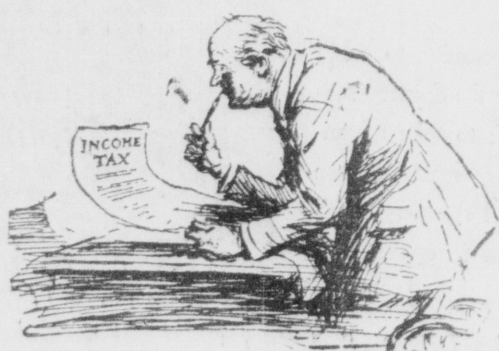

Likewise, he must thoroughly masticate every morsel taken aboard and then possibly he can tell all the leans and the fats, too, just how, when, where and why, to reduce or get stout as the mood may vary.

PLAN TO BOOST
'Y' MEMBERSHIP

Plans to increase the general membership of the Santa Ana Y. M. C. A. and to enlarge its general community activities, will be discussed at a meeting of the general membership committee to be held Monday at 6:30 p. m. at the association building, Secretary Ralph C. Smedley announced today. P. H. Norton is chairman of this committee.

Social and entertainment activities of the association for the coming year will be taken up at a meeting of the social committee, set for Tuesday evening, it was announced. This committee is headed by Charles H. Chapman.

LAW RESPECT IS URGED AS SCHOOL THEME

Of interest to those identified with public education, child welfare and law enforcement is a recommendation of the legislative committee of the California W. C. T. U. that the subject of law observance be added to the curriculum of the elementary and junior high schools, according to advices received in local educational circles.

In response to a state-wide demand, Will C. Wood, state superintendent of public instruction, not long ago appointed a school investigating committee to look into and report upon the advisability of adding a course of law observance to the curriculum of the public schools.

The advices state that the aid of the California P. T. A. will be sought in making representations to the state board of education. Mrs. Charles L. Gilmore, chairman of the legislative committee of the W. C. T. U., according to reports, states that while the time to impress the first ideas of law observance on the child is in the kindergarten and primary grades, the only attempt at teaching law is under the guise of civil government in the eighth grade of the grammar school and the senior year in the high school.

JURY AWARDS
SAILOR $1500
IN ACCIDENT

Going to trial yesterday with his suit for damages against the Pickwick Stage company, cost Andrew Bischoff just $250. In one way, and in another way it cost him $2500.

The young ex-sailor, who was injured in a collision near San Juan Capistrano, while riding as a passenger on a Pickwick stage, was awarded $4,000 damages by a jury some time ago. A new trial was granted and was held yesterday in Superior Judge Z. B. West's court.

Before it opened, the stage company offered Bischoff $1750, it is said, as a compromise of his claim, which was originally $10,150. He refused and the case went to trial. The jury, late yesterday, awarded Bischoff $1500, just $250 less than he was offered, and $2500 less than the former jury award.

Farm Bureau
Notes

Formation of a class in farm economics has been undertaken by L. W. Fluharty farm management specialist with the University of California, who spoke on "The Present Status of Agriculture" at the Tustin Farm center meeting last night. The Orange county class will be the first of its kind in California, it is said. Meetings will be held every two months.

All farmers and others interested in farm economics are requested to get in touch with the farm advisor, who will take care of the enrollments.

A number of the Tustin center members signified their intention of joining the Fluharty class.

Another speaker at Tustin last night was H. E. Wahlberg, county farm advisor, who talked on "Pruning of Wind Injured Trees."

Trees should not be pruned for two or three months yet, Wahlberg said.

S. W. Stanley, recently elected president of the Orange County Farm bureau, resigned as the Tustin director of the bureau. Felton Browning was elected in his place.

A committee to handle the organization of a poultry club for boys and girls was named at the meeting. The committee consists of Will Hatch, chairman; D. D. Field and Charles Grisct. A two reel motion picture showing the work of agriculture clubs throughout the state was shown at the meeting.

LEGION PLAYERS MAKE BIG HIT IN "WITHIN THE LAW" BEFORE CAPACITY AUDIENCE

By ALVIN B. BERRY

Full of "pep" and with possibly the most clever acting by amateurs ever witnessed on a Santa Ana stage, the Santa Ana American Legion show, "Within the Law," a drama of heart throbs and laughter, opened a two-night engagement at the Walker theater last night. Echoes from the show are being heard throughout the city today.

Those who filled virtually every seat in the theater last night, did not see an amateur show, but as good a professional performance as has come to Santa Ana in several years. Words of praise were heaped high on the actors, following the performance, and the dressing rooms were swamped for almost an hour with admirers, expressing their encomiums.

The manner in which the members of the Legion and of the auxiliary staged "Within the Law," came as a complete surprise to the hundreds of people present, and more than once, during the show people were literally "sitting on the edges of their seats."

Cyril Chadwick, movie star, who now is featured in "The Iron Horse" at the Egyptian theater in Hollywood, witnessed the performance last night, driving down here specially for the occasion.

"When an amateur cast has men and women crying throughout their show, then it ceases to be anything but a professional show," he remarked after the performance, when asked his opinion of the show. "I have never seen an amateur show of such high quality, and perfection," Chadwick said, "and Santa Ana is to be complimented on the amount of talent to be found in a town of this size."

Chadwick played the part of George Richardson, as Inspector Burke, willing to use any method to nail a suspect, scored a perfect success. His part, one of the heavy loads, was carried out in such a realistic way, that the audience became a part of the life drama being unfolded before them. Richardson can easily be classed as one of the outstanding stars.

Jimmy Duggan, as the sour-tempered old store owner, stingy and without sympathy, was another of the star performers. His work was excellent, as Edward Gilder, the personal enemy of Mary Turner, and his acting with Mrs. Whitney was particularly clever.

M. R. Todd, playing the part of the gilded youth, son of Edward Gilder, who is "played" by Mary Turner in order to revenge herself with the elder Gilder, was splendid. A type totally different from any other in the play, Todd played his role unusually well and he deserves much credit.

Laughter for the show was ably furnished by Mrs. Lella Baird, who is Aggie Lynch, "non" woman, in the show. Her droll manner and her ease before the footlights, went a long way in making the show a big success.

Her acting was particularly good in the second and last acts. Play "Sob" Part

But it took Joe Plank, playing the part of the forger and gunman, to bring tears into the eyes of the audience, and many women were seen crying when he told Mary Turner, goodbye, in the last act, following his confession to the murder of English Eddie. Plank's acting was unusually fine.

Eugene Douglas, as Detective Sergeant Cassidy, and Maurice Endale, as George Demarest, the district attorney, together with Mrs. Lillian Richardson, as Sarah, old employee of the Gilder store, all deserve much credit for their splendid work on the stage.

Others in the cast were Carl Sutton, Theo Wollaston, Elizabeth Cannon, A. J. Tracy, Thomas Scudder, Eugene Dickinson, H. C. Parsons, P. K. Cassidy, Michael Lynch and Albert Bruning. They sustained their parts exceedingly well.

There are still a number of good seats available for tonight's performance. Hundreds of seats have been sold, and from the favorable comment being heard throughout the city today, indications are that another packed house will greet the performance at the rise of the curtain tonight.

LIONS PLAN TO ORGANIZE FUND FOR SCHOLARS

Reports by chairman of committees of the Lions club made at the meeting of the club yesterday at St. Ann's Inn revealed that the committees are functioning 100 per cent. The reports were made in pursuance of a new policy of the board of directors to frequently bring before the membership the actions of the board and committees.

Recommendation by the committee on welfare, as made through the chairman, O. H. Egge, that the club make organization of a scholarship fund one of its major activities, was received with favor by the club, and was referred to the directors.

"The committee believes it would be a fine thing if the club would create such a fund for assisting local boys in gaining a college education," Egge said, in proposing that funds be loaned to young men after completing junior college courses here. The money would be a loan, to be paid back within two years after the recipient had completed his educational course. It was proposed that each member of the club be assessed $5 a year for the fund.

There are some young men whose physical condition will not permit them working their way through school and a loan of a few hundred dollars without interest would be of invaluable assistance in helping them to realize their ambition to go through college," the chairman said.

Gets "Nucleus" Check
Speaking on the subject, the Rev. Perry P. Schrock said that a member of the club had mailed him a check for $25 with the suggestion that it be used as the nucleus for a scholarship fund for the club.

H. B. Van Dien, chairman of the civic affairs committee, suggested that the club become active in advocating a charter for Santa Ana and for the erection of a public auditorium.

Other reports were by Ed Holmes, secretary, who announced a membership of 74, including seven new members accepted since January 1; John A. Henderson, membership; S. B. Kaufman, constitution and by-laws; Clyde Whitney, finance, who announced that the committee had adopted the budget plan for the club; Lyle Anderson, entertainment; James McDill, boys work, recommending that the club make a boy survey; M. D. Clark, athletics, suggesting organization of golf and bowling tournaments; J. C. Wallace, annual convention, who announced that plans were being made to send the Santa Ana municipal band to San Diego for the convention in May and also to the convention of Lions international.

Dr. Elliott H. Rowland, program director, presided.

Plan Attendance Contest
H. E. Wahlberg, president, announced the appointment of Roy King, George Platt, Homer Chaney, E. B. Sprague and Joe Finley as a committee to take charge of the attendance contest starting March 23 and continuing to May 16. H. B. Van Dien, A. W. Dula, Roy King and George T. Peabody were named as a committee on extension work, with the suggestion that the Santa Ana club sponsor organization of a club in the Newport Beach-Balboa-Costa Mesa district.

According to Andy Anderson, a program of lively entertainment has been completed for the club's dinner dance at St. Ann's Friday of next week.

W. S. (Spike) Spicer "spiked" cigars he left for distribution to members as his "set up" on his marriage yesterday at Whittier. Spikes were concealed in the smokes.

Musical entertainment yesterday consisted of trombone solos by D. C. Cianfoni and a vocal number by Maurice Phillips.

Appointment of a committee was also decided upon to assist the lesson leader in preparation of the monthly program. Mrs. Raymond Beem took charge of the lesson at this meeting. The April meeting will have as hostesses Mrs. Sherman Buck and Mrs. Albert Ruoff.

Twenty-one were present at Wednesday's meeting. Four former members were visitors. They were Mrs. C. C. Bonebrake and Mrs. J. W. Soden now of Orange, and Mrs. H. O. ## French Class to Speak French at French Affair

French students at the Santa Ana junior college are to learn of life in "gay Paris" in a dinner party to be held this evening at 6 o'clock in the model apartments at the high school.

Everything, even to the conversation, is to be French according to Miss Lella Watson, head of the language department at the school, who arranged the party.

French place cards are to be used for the dinner at which a French menu is to be served. Following the dinner a program of French drama is to be presented by the students of the first year class.

Cross word puzzles in French will be offered for students to solve. Members of the second year class worked out the puzzles. Scenes from French history are to be dramatized for the entertainment. The first scene is to depict the arrival of Julius Caesar in Gaul. Horace Perkins and Hollis Fitts play the parts in the scene. A Christian martyrdom in Gaul is to be enacted. Students who appear in the cast include Miss Wilma Silver, Miss Frances Hallman, Miss Louane Leech and Hollis Fitts.

Friday the Thirteenth Is Making Superstitious Tread Most Warily

13 HAS BEEN DEEMED OMEN FOR MANY EONS

Great Men Believed In Luck of Numbers and Watched Friday, 13th

BY ARVID GILMOUNT

Today is Friday—the thirteenth. Watch your step and don't let any black cat cross your path, for if you do—you might as well turn around for home and call it a holiday. Moreover, keep your eyes peeled for this is the day of speed cops, process servers and bill collectors.

And beware of hip flasks and friendly invitation. The "good stuff," although guaranteed on word of honor to be of pre-Volstead stock and sporting a respectable pedigree, might have a mule kick in it that will spoil your chances for the New Year's eve celebration. Strange things will happen on this day of ill luck and who knows but the dispenser might be, one of those working for the good cause with an expense account—which circumstance would lend conviction, if not enchantment, to his work and to your good self. So beware.

The bad luck associated with Friday and the number thirteen is a superstition found in all countries and has been subscribed to by the greatest men in history—including Victor Hugo, Bismarck, Napoleon and other famous personages. Now if you are still listed as a bachelor, stay in that classification until sundown. Be sure to get your bearings before you head out in the morning on the uncharted ocean of chance acquaintance. There are a lot of hungry flappers floating around, looking for a safe anchorage in the form of matrimony and alimony. So beware of the haven of heavenly bliss on this day and stay clear of the courthouse and the smiling person ready to take your five-spot, thirteenth or no thirteenth.

Even as far back as in the Norse sagas and in the myths of the ancient Hindoos we read that 13

NEW JERSEY COUPLE SEPARATED ONLY 2 WEEKS IN 75 YEARS AS MAN AND WIFE

In Love 75 years

JOHN AND SUSAN DEMAREST, WHO HAVE JUST CELEBRATED THEIR DIAMOND WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

After Three Quarters of a Century Together Say Are Still In Love

WYCKOFF, N. J., March 13.—

Seventy-five years ago, John Demarest, 22, and Susan Winter, 17, rode horseback over a hilly trail to the parsonage 12 miles away and promised to love, honor—and the rest of it as long as they lived. Then these two literally settled down to make a home. He chopped down the trees from which the lumber was cut that was transformed into chairs and tables for the tiny home. She raised the flax that was spun into linen, and the sheep that gave up their coats for the family clothes.

Today after three-quarters of a century together, they emphatically say they are still in love and that they look forward with pleasure to more years together, even though John's hands that once worked so deftly are swelled with rheumatism and her eyes aren't so dangerously twinkly as they were in the days when he won her from all the gals of northern New Jersey.

Assembling a Home
"Pull at the same end of the rope," is their motto for happiness. "Don't hold grudges. Quarrel if you must, but settle issues as you go along. Don't nag, don't meddle, don't neglect business for pleasure, and don't expect from others the perfection you lack yourself."

"Don't construct your home on a factory basis," John, now 97, advises young married couples. "A home can't be assembled like a Ford car. It can't be built in a day. It is the result of love, sacrifice and forbearance. But when you own one on a firm foundation, it is worth everything you put into it a hundred times over."

"I never had a ready-made dress in my life," Mrs. Demarest interrupted. Then she added with a smile as she touched her black calico dress with the white polka dots—"They don't make this kind in factories. I've always made my own clothes. I've never had more than a dozen laws of fruit or vegetables that I didn't can myself. I've never patronized a delicatessen shop or a beauty parlor. Everything for myself and John and my four children has been a privilege for me to do myself. I couldn't give it over to strangers."

"We've spent our evenings at home, except for an occasional neighborhood gathering. John would read as I patched and sewed. We have worked out all the problems of our 75 years together in our evening talks. We have never been separated but two

LOCAL TEACHER ANALYSES INHERENT SUPERSTITIONS BEHIND FATEFUL FRIDAYS

Why is today, Friday the thirteenth, regarded with dread foreboding?

"Man's inherent superstitious nature makes it so," asserts Miss Jennie B. Lasby, science teacher at the Santa Ana junior college who has made a study of some 300 varied superstitions.

"Most people even today to a certain extent believe in superstitions," continued Miss Lasby. "Friday the thirteenth is regarded by them as doubly evil because Friday and thirteen are both supposedly of serious consequences and the combination makes the day especially dangerous."

"The origin of the superstition regarding Friday probably dates back to the crucifixion of Christ on a Friday."

"Where the ill repute of the number thirteen began is not certain. It may be that it arose from the fact that there were thirteen present at the Last Supper with Christ and the twelve disciples."

Science Dispel Fear
Miss Lasby declared that the present day scientific understanding was doing much to remove belief in superstitions.

Most superstitions come down from savage spirit worship when men did not know the reasons for mystic occurrences. People today accept their superstitious explanation without seeking the causes from which they developed.

"An instance of unthinking superstition is to be found in the fear of walking under a ladder. It probably happened that at some time a person was injured by walking under a ladder and that gradually it became a superstition."

One of the most common of superstitions is that of knocking on wood. "When we possess something we have desired, a dread is felt that it may be lost so we 'knock on wood' as a measure for safety."

Science has proven some superstitions to be based on fact. The popular belief in the advantages of planting during certain phases of the moon is being partially supported by science. Polarization of the light of the moon has been found to have some relation to plant growth, according to recent investigations.

"Because in some cases superstitions are found to have a true basis people are apt to accredit all superstitious beliefs," remarked Miss Lasby. "Occasionally some disas-

EX-ORGANIST HERE IS STAR IN MELBOURNE

Harold M. Wright, Formerly at Temple, Tells of New Post In Australia

It is a far cry from the dark pit of the little Temple theater of Santa Ana where he was "annoying" the good folk with his antics on the keyboard to the elevated spotlight of the four-million dollar Capitol Theater of Melbourne, where, billed as America's greatest synopocating organist, he is treating a select audience to some real music, writes Harold M. Wright, a former Santa Ana resident and well known in local musical and show circles.

Wright left here last year for Australia under a contract with the Wurlitzer corporation for the purpose of opening up the big organ in the new Capitol theatre building. Describing the building, he says that it is the finest show place, erected by two Americans, formerly of Seattle, at a cost of $4,000,000. It is truly a Sild Grauman edifice and compares in style, appointments and accommodations with anything on the Pacific coast.

Draws Comparisons
As he sets forth his observations of his new surroundings, he unconsciously draws a comparison between the past and the present in his own life. "I sometimes think back now and laugh—I can afford to laugh now but it was all very serious then—I think back to those times when I used to sit down in the dark pit at the Temple and strum away and 'annoy' the good folk. I am even afraid that I used to drive them away with my efforts to entertain. But it is a far cry from those days."

In closing, Wright states that he expects to leave Australia by the first of June and get back here on or about July 1, when he will make necessary arrangements to take up a four-year university course.

PICK DOWNING AS CHIEF FOR ROUND TABLE

Clyde C. Downing yesterday was elected president of the Knights of the Round Table of Santa Ana for the coming year. Downing acted as president during the organization period and his election yesterday followed nomination a week ago.

Other officers elected at yesterday's meeting were: First vice-president, D. E. Liggett; second vice-president, S. M. Gilbert; secretary, W. I. Stewart; treasurer, L. Oleson. The above officers with P. S. Lucas and Dr. Frank Ashmore constitute the board of directors.

The Rev. W. L. H. Benton, speaker of the day, gave a most interesting talk and briefly told of the background of the history and legend of King Arthur's knights. The Rev. Benton used the subject to bring out a splendid idea of the application of the ideal of Round Table knighthood to the life of today.

Entertainment was furnished by Frank Lansdown with two vocal solos, accompanied by Glenn Tindall, Herbert House of Los Angeles gave a piano solo.

Local Musicians "On Air" Tonight

Myford M. Carrillo, violinist, and Emmert Lippincott, saxophonist, well known Santa Ana musicians, who are members of the Huntington Beach dance orchestra, will be heard on the radio tonight, from 8 to 9 p. m., on station KLOS.

The orchestra gave a recent program with such success that it was asked to entertain again tonight.

"SANTA ANA VILLAGE" IS DESCRIBED IN ARTICLE IN SYRACUSE, N.Y., NEWSPAPER

"Rev. Peter C. Santy, brother of Detective Steven Santy, and a familiar figure as a boy among the early residents of the first ward, occupies a prominent position in the development of the recently founded village of Santa Ana in Orange county, California. He has been instrumental in the establishment of the village, once patronized as a summer resort, and he bears the distinction of being the founder of the Santa Ana's only Catholic church—St. Anna's."

This piece of interesting information is contained in the opening paragraph of a news story that appeared in a recent issue of the Post Standard, Syracuse, N. Y., purporting to set forth Father Santy's activities in "this village."

As luck would have it, there happened to be a real California boost in Syracuse at the time the story appeared in the paper, who sent the clipping to the Santa Ana chamber of commerce with suggestion that while progress has not as yet reached the sky scraper level, it has graduated from the "village" classification.

The reporter's performance in staying clear of facts yet retaining clarity of style, is one of the notable features of the story. The article goes on:

Like the edifices of medieval times, Father Santy's church is but a single story, wooden shack which is expected soon, in view of the remarkable progress of the village, to be replaced by one of modern architecture. His congregation has more than doubled within the last year and once makeshift dwellings are being supplanted by modern homes.

"Villagers are Thrifty"
Religious progress must have been slow and painful in the "village" for the story goes on to say that "in his efforts towards the

CHORAL UNION WILL PRESENT FAVORITE OLD COMEDY OPERA

"The Prince of Pilsen" Is to Be Put on As Final Seasonal Offering

REHEARSALS WILL BE STARTED NEXT WEEK

Choral Favorites Are to Appear In Production on May 5 and 6

That era of musical history which was marked by musical comedies and light operas such as "The Merry Widow," the "Choco-late Soldier," "The Three Twins" and similar tuneful, lyrical masterpieces, will be recalled to mind with the announcement that the Orange County Choral Union has finally decided to present "The Prince of Pilsen" as its final contribution to the season's entertainment course of the Music-Drama association.

"Probably no other musical comedy remains more firmly entrenched in the affections of musical folk than 'The Prince of Pilsen,' today, declared Fred C. Rowland who takes time from his ranching duties to assist in business matters of the Choral union as well as in musical phases, and who announced that rehearsals on Tuesday and Friday nights of each week would henceforth be in order for the singers taking part.

Some of the extremely singable and "whisperable" melodies were recalled, especially "The Message of the Violet" that charming lyric which would make the opera a success were there no other outstanding songs in its score.

Favorites To Sing
Old Choral Union favorites will appear again in the May production. Mrs. G. I. Daley whose artistic work in "Fra Diavolo" remains a pleasant memory as well as equally interesting roles in "The Bohemian Girl" and other successes, will sing a leading part while Sallie Le Scales, introduced to a delighted audience in "Fra Diavolo" will also appear again.

The saucy little bell boy will be sung by an Anaheim girl, Miss Marcelline Hoppes, while other parts will be taken by Cecil Fross Willis, Mrs. Fred Medberry, Mrs. Arthur Mays, Tom Hallowell, Reginald Taylor, Alex Garraway and of course that dean of Choral union singers, without whom no offering would seem complete, Maurice Phillips.

May 5 and 6 have been selected as the dates when the opera will be presented and the semi-weekly rehearsals are expected to be all that is necessary until the period just before the production.

It is the wish of E. H. Rhodes, founder and director of the organization, that musical folk among the newcomers to Santa Ana might feel assured of a welcome to membership in the Choral union which ever welcomes new voices and which offers an unexampled value in training in such work.

The Prince of Pilsen with its lavishly costumed choruses and amount of unusually interesting floor work, will be of great value to any singer taking part and any member stands in readiness to testify to the value of the training offered by Mr. Rhodes. An unusual amount of dancing is another pleasant feature of the forthcoming production, which will offer pleasure to the audience as well as valuable experience to the members of the cast.

Anyone wishing to take part is cordially invited to the rehearsal tonight, at 7:30 o'clock at the Mabel Rockwell studio, 117½ East Fourth street.

Seeks Removal of Tenants Who Pay No Rental

M. Stroud, of this city, now regrets the philanthropic spirit that prompted him when he offered H. M. Neff and family free occupancy of a house on Buero road, west of Santa Ana. For Neff, he says, having moved into the house, now refuses to move out.

Stroud's suit to eject Neff from the premises, the old Bell residence located half a mile south of Fifth street, was on file today in the superior court through Attorney Morris Cain. Restitution of the premises and damages are sought.

According to Stroud, who claims to have a lease on the place, he permitted the Neff family to live in the house without paying rent. Since January 1, he alleges, Neff has ignored several requests to move.

Members of the Orange county unit of the California Alumni association will feature their 57th charity night celebration at the California Hotel, Fullerton, Monday night, with a program boasting the Fullerton site for the Southern branch of the state university. It was announced here today by Fred Forgy, president of the county unit.

Service of the annual banquet will start at 6:30 p. m., and the program will follow. Eighty men and women of Orange county are expected to be present, Forgy said in stressing the point that all alumni, including those of the southern branch, should attend.

Reservations may be made through Forgy or Mrs. Will S. Kellogg.

Dr. Martin, of the chemistry department of the southern branch, will be one of the speakers, according to Forgy.

DISTRICT KNIGHTS WILL MEET IN S. A.

Representatives of the seven Knights of Pythias lodges of the district will meet in the local K. P. hall, 206 1-2 East Fourth street, March 25, for their monthly meeting. The knight rank will be conferred. A program of entertainment is planned and refreshments will be served. All Pythians are invited.

Santa Ana lodge No. 149 will confer the page and esquire ranks at the regular meeting in the hall next Wednesday evening.

Formation of a Knights of Pythias Building association is active under way here, it is announced. A lot on Fourth street has been purchased some time ago. It is proposed to erect a combination lodge and store building on the property.

PASADENA, March 13.—Four of the present members of the city board of directors were among eight candidates nominated at Pasadena's primary yesterday, returns showed today.

Of the eight nominees, four are to be elected on April 2.

Three of the incumbent nominees received the greatest number of votes, indicating the present administration will be returned to power and the city manager form of government retained.

"MY HUSBAND'S WIVES" CLOSES TONIGHT

Admirers of Shirley Mason who like to see her in piquant moods while undergoing all kinds of thrilling experiences will have their final opportunity to see her in her latest starring vehicle, "My Husband's Wives," at the Yost theatre tonight.

This picture, the story of which was written by Barbara La Marr, also a famous screen star, gives Miss Mason a chance to draw one of those characterizations for which she is most famous, and to say she is charming in the part, is expressing it mildly.

In her supporting cast are Bryant Washburn and Evelyn Brent, who give the fans some treats of their own volition. The direction is unusually interesting and different, which is explained by the fact that Maurice Elvey, a noted English producer, was behind the megaphone while the filming was being done. His originality in technique is plainly discernible.

PAULINE STARKE HAS LEAD IN "DEVIL'S CARGO"

Pauline Starke, recently seen in support of Pola Negri in "Forbidden Paradise," has, perhaps, the finest role of her lengthy career in the cast of "The Devil's Cargo," now showing at the West End.

Miss Starke is featured with Wallace Beery, William Collier, Jr., and Claire Adams. Her role is that of the daughter of the proprietor of a saloon and gambling hall in Sacramento, the scene of the story, which is one of California seventy-five years ago.

Since Miss Starke appeared with Thomas Meighan in her first Paramount picture, "If You Believe It, It's So," she has forged steadily ahead. During the past year she has appeared in several outstanding successes.

A POSITIVE SENSATION WALKER'S TOMORROW

There is nothing in the world as sensational as "Yankee Speed." It's a Yankee characteristic. Therefore, the pictureization of "Yankee Speed" brought forth startling results. Every red-blooded person will get a real wallop from the "go get'em" traits of Kenneth McDonald, the Yank of "Yankee Speed." He crams more action into this six-reel picture sensation than one expects to see in a year. It's just the kind of entertainment the public has been clamoring for. It has everything a feature picture should have, and more. The whole world loved the famous story, "The Mystery of Castle," by R. N. Bradbury, and "Yankee Speed" is adapted from it. Even grandma and grandpa will shriek with delight at the dynamic capers of our Yankee hero.

Superlatives simply can't describe the sensations in this new picture achievement.

boded disaster, so again—beware. The ill luck is not limited to troubles with black pussies, speed cops, prohibition officers and designing females. Some one celebrating his birthday might take a notion, to hit you on the head with a brick and knock you "cuckoo." It isn't at all necessary that the brick should be made of California clay and weigh several pounds. There are other bricks just as useful on this ray. To be hit with a "gold brick" is just as bad.

With the exception of occasional trips to New York City, which is about an hour and a half away from here, Mrs. Demarest has never been out of New Jersey.

He Washes the Dishes
"Our life has been happy, rather than exciting"—here the husband took up the narrative. "We didn't have much to start with, but we did not run into the temptations of people who have too much. That is what ails so many people today. They have nothing to wish for, which is worse than wishing for everything."

The old tenet of "early to bed and early to rise" has been followed by this couple. Usually they are in bed by eight and up by six at the very latest.

"Surely I get John's breakfast," answered Mrs. Demarest with just the slightest hint of resentment at the question. "I've done it for 75 years and shall continue to do so as long as I can get around."

"Once our duties were sharply divided. John's were outside the house, mine were inside. Now we are on a 50-50 basis. John helps me prepare the food and wash the dishes, since he does no outside work any more."

"It's just as well," she concluded with a wise nod. "No man is too old not to be harmed by idleness. To keep a husband out of mischief, keep him busy."

Baby's skin trouble healed
in one week

South Hills, Pittsburg, Pa., March 22.—"I certainly bless the day I started to use Resinol Soap and Ointment. I tried for four or five months to cure my baby of a skin and scalp trouble—tried nearly everything—but nothing did any good. Finally, a neighbor recommended Resinol and after using the soap and ointment on baby for three days, all the scabs fell off and in one week's time the trouble was entirely cured. I will never be without them. My husband uses the Resinol shaving stick—he thinks it's the best he ever used." (Signed) Mrs. J. J. Baumgarten, Box #50—R. D. #9.

TOBACCO HABIT IS PLAYED IN STUDENT TALK

"Women smokers are more prevalent and more brazen today than they have ever been before," Albion Walton, physical director in the Pasadena vocational high school, declared in an address before the students at the Santa Ana high school yesterday in assembly.

Walton gave figures to prove the advance My Lady Nicotine has made among the ranks of the fair sex. "Three per cent of the women of this country are smokers," he said. "It is hard to believe that there can be so large a number but attention is daily being drawn to the fact."

Walton took some knocks at the use of tobacco by the men, decrying the effects of the "weed" in destroying standards of "clean sportmanship" on school teams and in life successes.

"Tobacco works an insidious injury to the body. In the cigarette there are eighteen distinct poisons in quantities too small to cause immediate fatal effects. It is after years that the toll is taken."

"The problem would be simplified if smokers dropped dead about the cigarette stands. As it is we hear that a prominent business man at the age of 45 or 50 suddenly dropped dead due to heart failure. The real reason of habitual smoking is not told."

Instances of athletes such as Charles Paddock and Jack Dempsey were cited by Walton to show that the champion bans the use of tobacco.

"In school sports," he said, "there may be an occasional athlete who smokes and makes an outstanding record. However, when this man goes to college he will disappear in a year or so."

"Success in life may come to the tobacco user but the deteriorating effect of the drug will limit the attainment he might have gained," declared Walton in closing.

LEGAL BATTLE ON COLORADO PACT LOOMS

PHOENIX, ARIZ., March 13.—A legal battle in Arizona looms following final approval by both houses of the state legislature of the amended Colorado river compact.

Opponents of the measure, which was concurred in by the assembly late yesterday, claim the action was invalid, and are supported in their stand by Governor Hunt.

The governor holds that a resolution is not legislation, and cannot be made into law. He told the legislators their action was "valueless."

Efforts will probably be made to refer the entire matter to a vote of Arizona electors at the next state election.

Executive action or injunction proceedings to prevent carrying out the provisions of the bill were also anticipated.

Constipation is dreaded, not only for its insidious self, but for the serious diseases which may be traced to it. Mr. Palludon tells us the helpful story of his relief:

FULLERTON TO RENEW EFFORT
IN SITE 'WAR'

With G. W. Finch, president, and George Raymer, secretary, of the Fullerton chamber of commerce in the Imperial valley today, and directors of the chamber scattered to other points in Southern California, Fullerton today had renewed vigorously its campaign to put over its site for the southern branch of the state university.

Decision of the directors and officers to scatter to various points to secure the influence of prominent men was made following a special meeting of the chamber directors Wednesday evening, when J. A. Prizer, who represented the city at the meeting of the board of regents in San Francisco Saturday, reported that Fullerton had serious competition in the sites under consideration.

The directors maintained secrecy as to details of their plan of action, but the fact that they have gone to different points in the southland indicate they have mapped out an active campaign to secure the support of outside communities.

The regents are scheduled to meet in San Francisco on March 21 in an effort to settle the question as to site. Prediction is made that for political reasons, final settlement will not be made under two years.

At its meeting last Saturday the board decided that no selection would be made except upon a majority vote of the full board, which means that thirteen votes would have to be cast for one site before a choice could be made. In the opinion of some local residents, no one location at this time has that much strength.

CHICAGO, March 13.—William D. Shepherd, foster father of William McClintock, "millionaire orphan," who died and left Shepherd his fortune, took a week's course in bacteriology, Dr. Charles C. Fauman, proprietor of the National University of Sciences, told state's attorneys early today after hours of grilling. Shortly after Shepherd concluded his course, three bottles containing germs, one of the filled with typhoid bacilla, disappeared from the school, Dr. Fauman said. McClintock's death was laid to typhoid fever. Assistant State's Attorney John Sbarbaro, who secured the statement from Fauman, dispatched George Gorman, a fellow prosecutor, to bring Shepherd to the office.

Canadians Open

VICTORIA, B. C., March 13.—A campaign which is expected to become nationwide in scope has been started here by the native sons of Canada to seek the total exclusion of orientals from the dominion.

The organization will carry on a publicity program in an attempt to force the question until it will require a plebiscite. The members not only want to stop the influx of Chinese and Japanese into Canada, but also desire to see an attempt to deport those already here.

SECURITY PACT
DISCUSSION IS SET FOR FALL

GENEVA, March 13.—The council of the League of Nations voted unanimously today to place the Geneva security protocol in the Agenda of the Sixth Assembly, scheduled for next September and to postpone all preparations for another disarmament conference until the assembly has made a final decision in the matter.

This action was taken on a resolution proposed by Foreign Minister Benes of Czechoslovakia. Canada has notified the secretariat of the league she is unable to accept the Geneva security protocol, but that she would be disposed to accept the treaty for compulsory arbitration of international differences provided certain reservations were made.

SUCCESSFUL FARMING

That's the slogan of the Sutter Basin project. Great crops are being raised and sold at good prices. The location is right—only twenty-two miles north of Sacramento, with splendid transportation facilities, rail, water, and highway. The soil is rich and deep; the irrigation and drainage plants are of the best; the land is being farmed now. The Sutter Basin Company's project has stood the acid test—drouth and floods have no terror for its farmers. As a colonization enterprise this famous 45,000-acre tract has been a remarkable success. Fourteen home-seeker excursions have been brought in during the past year and many sales have been made to practical farmers and investors from the Central States. Many Orange County farmers visited Sutter Basin and have purchased land and are establishing their new homes. Houses have been built by settlers on the land sold by the Sutter Basin Company, at the rate of one house a week for 1924. Our best advertisements have been the record yields of asparagus, sugar beets, alfalfa, vegetables and grain. Our new orchards and vineyards—peaches, prunes, etc.—and grapes, show a remarkable growth. Dairying, poultry and hogs, are profitable. Scientific soil culture wins here. The land is sold at fair prices and on easy terms. Charges for irrigation water and maintenance are very low. You will like the land and will be convinced of the advantages offered by Sutter Basin Company.

A. to be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the north building of the Frances E. Willard Junior High school. It was announced today by Mrs. J. Edmund Snow, president of the district organization.

The meeting was called by Mrs. Snow in order that prompt action may be taken on a number of measures introduced in the present session of the state legislature, the enactment of which will affect the schools. Particular attention will be given to the so-called "religious instruction" bill, excluding pupils from 60 to 180 minutes a week for the purpose of receiving religious instruction, it was learned. It was also intimated that the Denel bill, creating the office of state director of education and relieving the state superintendent of public instruction of certain duties, will also come in for debate. The teachers' retirement fund, and the tenure act are other measures that will receive consideration.

Part of the meeting will be devoted to preparing the general program for the annual district conference to be held next month, it was announced.

Lioness Protects Wounded Mate and Thwarts Hunters

LOVELAND, Colo., March 13.—Somewhere up in the lofty crags of the mountains west of here, along timberline, where the broken and twisted storm-swept trees have been crushed by the elements, a mountain lioness stands guard over her wounded mate.

James G. Gates, coming down the Big Thompson canyon road from Estes Park, saw two boys, far up the mountainside, train their rifles on a huge mountain lion and fire. The animal ran a short distance and toppled over in the snow.

When the boys started up the mountain in pursuit, according to Gates, a lioness bounded out of the brush and stood between the boys and the wounded mate, snarling defiance at the hunters.

The boys fired two shots at the lioness but they went wild and the youths retreated.

The male lion got to his feet and started the long climb up the mountain, while the lioness continued to guard him, running circles around him as he climbed.

SAN DIEGO TRACKSTERS HERE TOMORROW

Record Crowd Expected At Bee-Irvine Game

COAST LEAGUE TEAM TO SEND SIX REGULARS

Mulcahy, Reiger, Connolly, Cook, Kerr, Coumbe to Appear Against Beans

The year's most delectable base ball morsel will be served Orange county fans at Irvine Sunday afternoon when the champion Beany-pickers engage a combination of regulars and rookies now wearing the spangles of Oscar Vitt's Salt Lake Bees. The contest will begin promptly at 2:30 o'clock.

If weather conditions are favorable one of the largest assemblages that ever passed through the Irvine turnstiles is expected. Base ball officials at the cross-roads hamlet intend to employ an extra corps of employees to see that there is no congestion of traffic entering the park.

Vitt has a large squad of players in training at Long Beach for the Pacific Coast league grind which gets under way early next month. He has promised to bolster the bunch of rookies coming to Irvine with half a dozen tested veterans all of whom will see action.

Mulcahy May Pitch
Phil Mulcahy and Elmer Reiger, veteran pitchers, will do most of the mound work. It is understood, with Les Cook behind the log, Johnny Kerr from Albany will be at shortstop. Fred Coumbe, the "human chatterbox," and Joe Connolly, the hard-hitting outfielder who came to Salt Lake in the deal that sent Rudy Kallio to the Boston Red Sox, are slated to do their chores in the gardens.

The following list of rookies also will be shipped along in an effort to chastise the proud Beany-pickers: McMurry, Bahr and Ricker, pitchers; Simons and Thompson, catchers; Osborne, first base; Eisenberg and Jacobson, infielders; and Rose and Hesse, outfielders. Several of these have had professional experience. McMurry, a lanky recruit dug up by "Spider" Baum at Fresno, is a young right-hander with such a good turn of speed that the Bees are going to tie a string to him if they "farm" him out at all.

Will Give 'Em Battle
Irvine should be able to give Vitt's crowd a stiff argument, particularly in view of the fact that the cross-roads' clan has been playing together all winter while the Bees are just getting back into shape after a winter of comparative inactivity.

Weather conditions probably will determine the assignment of Irvine pitchers. If Sunday is a warm day, "Dutch" Hinrichs likely will get the nod. A cool, cloudy afternoon probably will see Archie Hawkins tolling for his fast ball. It is hard to touch on occasions of that sort. Hinrichs, however, heaved last weekend when the weather was sultry and the big blond came through with colors flying so it is a pretty safe guess that he will start, rain or shine.

IS FAMILY MAN
Bill Weiss, captain and star guard of the University of Chicago basketball team, is a family man. Weiss is married and the father of a four-year-old son. And besides, the Maroon is a pretty nifty football player, though an injury kept him on the sidelines most of last season.

Mulcahy May Start On Turret Against Beanpickers Sunday

PHIL MULCAHY

Baseball fans who flock to Irvine park Sunday afternoon to see the Beany-pickers and the Salt Lake Bees in their bat and glove fest will look over this young pitcher, Phil Mulcahy, a regular with the Utah club last season, is slated to get part of the Salt Lake pitching assignment. He is a young fellow with plenty of "stunt" and the Irvine sluggers may find him a puzzle.

Tourney Bowler Sets Low-Score Mark In Match

BUFFALO, N. Y., March 13.—W. Hurley, a member of one of the Buffalo Elk teams, which competed in the five-man team event last night, lays claim to an American Bowling Congress record, that of the lowest three games ever rolled in an international tournament. His scores are 32, 34 and 63, for a total of 129, and average of 43 pins for the three games.

POLY NINE IS 19-2 WINNER OVER GROVERS

It's too early to tell much about the future status of Coach Lyman Kidman's Santa Ana high school baseball team but not too previous to venture the opinion that it is one of the heaviest hitting clubs that ever wore the Poly spangles. In defeating Garden Grove, 19 to 2, at Poly field yesterday afternoon, Kidman's troupe of pitcher-disturbers collected the robust total of 22 hits in the space of six innings. All kinds of pitching looked the same to the Santa Ana sluggers who chased over five runs in the first frame, six more in the third, two in the fifth and six again in the sixth.

Captain Arnold Norton, Ed Daley, "Tex" Reister and Chet Siegel did most of the dirty work to the Garden Grove heaver, this quartette amassing 14 blows all by themselves. Norton hit a homer and a brace of doubles. Siegel also connected for the circuit. Spencer rode the horsehide out of the lot and Roy Schoettler drove out a two-bagger.

Oscar Spencer southpawed his way through the visitors for five innings, retiring to allow Reister to the last stanza. Garden Grove got five hits off this pair of left handers.

Kidman was to lead his gang against Tustin this afternoon. The box score:

H. Munz, ss	2	1	2	1	Midbrook, c	2	2	2	2

H. B. Man Is Granted 'Ref' License

Jack McDonough of Huntington Beach, perhaps the most widely known man ever connected with the boxing game in Orange county, has been granted a referee's license by the California Boxing commission and is now eligible to act as ring official anywhere in the state. The "third man" act won't be new to McDonough for he was "Tex" Rickard's referee when the latter was promoting bouts at Goldfield, Nev., and also served in the same capacity for Jack Kearns at Helena, Mont. before he became manager of Jack Dempsey. McDonough has refereed bouts in which such famous ring personages as Stanley Ketchell, Mike (Twinn) Sullivan, Young Peter Jackson and Terry Mustaine participated.

Before he became a referee McDonough was a boxer of note. He met Kid McCoy at Buffalo, N. Y. in 1899, losing in four rounds to the champion.

ALL-STARS HUMBLE MACY SCHOOL TEAM

Santa Ana's All-Stars took the measure of the strong Macy Street school indoor baseball team in an exciting game at the Santa Ana Y. M. C. A. lot last night. The score was 13 to 7.

"Eeny" Wilcox, on the hill for the locals, subdued the visitors with seven hits while his teammates were nipping Arce, Los Angeles slasher, for 15 smacks. "Big Bill" Cole was the hitting hero, the giant U. S. C. boy getting four safeties out of four trips to the dish. "Tex" Bergman connected for three out of three, including a home run. The lineup:

Santa Ana	Pos.	Macy School	Pos.

J. C. CINDERS SQUAD SECOND IN TRIANGULAR

Scoring 39 1-2 points even without the valuable services of Charlie Webber, high point man for the season, and John Lutz, star hurdler and 440 man, the Santa Ana junior college track team finished second in a triangular meet with Pasadena and Riverside junior colleges at Pasadena yesterday afternoon. Webber and Lutz were declared ineligible. Riverside won the meet with 59 points. Pasadena was third with 27 1-2.

Al Claves, the local all-around athlete, was high point man of the day with first places in the 100 and 220 yard dash and the low hurdles and a second in the shot. Claves negotiated the century in 10 1-5; the furlong in 23 2-5, and the low sticks in 27 1-2.

Lloyd Morris, last year's Poly cinders captain who recently transferred to the junior college from Oregon Aggies, won the 16-pound shot, was second in the broad jump, third in the discus and tied for fourth in the high jump.

Everett Lutz was second in the discus and third in the javelin. Additional points were recorded by "Brick" Armstrong in the 220 and Bob O'Brien in the mile.

The results:

Announce First Round Schedule for Net Classic

Schedule of play for the first round of the Santa Ana Tennis Club's mixed doubles tournament, to be held on the high school courts here Sunday morning and afternoon, were announced today by John Cress, president of the club. The drawings follow: Park and Miss Thorman vs. Bell and Miss Crockett; Marston and Miss Patton, vs. Foust and Miss Taver vs. Cress and Miss McGill; Lambert and Miss McNeill, by.

Cress said that semi-finals would begin at 10:30 o'clock. Finals will be played at 2 o'clock. Entries for the tournament may be made at the courts up to 9 o'clock Sunday.

COUNT ON VETERANS

Wisconsin is pitting its hopes for a successful season on the track on several veterans who bid fair to cut quite a swath in Big Ten circles before the campaign is finished. Chief among them is Lloyd Valley, former half-mile champion. Valley is captain of the squad and is reported to be showing better form than ever.

PAINTERS AND TRUCKERS MIX HERE SUNDAY

Preparatory to its "two-out-of-three" series with the Irvine Beany-pickers, the Van Dien-Young company baseball team will hook up with the speedy Shields Paint company nine at American Legion park here Sunday afternoon. Both the Van Diens-Youngs and the Shields teams are composed of local players so an exceptionally large crowd of bugs is counted on. The game will be a true test for the Shields outfit which has been "cleaning house" with a lot of high class opponents. Boasting some fine hitters and a couple of reliable moundmen, the Van Diens-Youngs, 1923-4 champions of the Orange County Harbor league, usually are a tough spot for the ordinary talent.

PREP RECORDS IN DANGER AT CINDER CLASH

Accord 'Fighting Chance' to Santa Ana Athletes; Fast Times, Marks Loom

San Diego high school's point-accumulating b. v. d. athletes, reputed to compose the most powerful and colorful interscholastic track aggregation in the state, meet Coach Ray Adkinson's Santa Ana team at Poly field here tomorrow afternoon in a Coast Preparatory league meet and, unless the border city men are highly "over-press-agented," prep records won't be worth a dime.

From the sprints down through the distances, jumps and weights to the relay, the Southerners are supposed to have a most remarkable ensemble of high school performers. Santa Ana has some strong runners and jumpers of its own and capable of fending off the visitors "just happened" or were made by a truly great team. "Tiny Moeller, the big San Diego weight-tosser, should establish a new Coast league record in the discus for the discus throws of 161 and 135 feet he is said to have made in practice put him in a class by himself not only in local circles but among high school men anywhere in the nation.

Local fans will be interested in the work of Holloway, a sprinter who has been clocked in 10 flat and 22 2-5 seconds in the 100 and 220 yard dashes, and McCormack who runs the mile under 4:40. Little Harvey Bear can step the century in 10 2-5 and the 220 in 23 2-5 and it wouldn't surprise cinder-shod followers if he presses Holloway.

Howard Paul may have to set a new Santa Ana high school record to win the broad jump from Ritchey and Donohue, the San Diego entrants, who are capable of bettering 21 feet. Paul, when right, can consistently jump close to 22 feet and it may be his day tomorrow to crack the old marks set by Ernie Plavan and Clarence Tedford.

JAHNKES WIN

A knockout blow to Santa Ana's hopes for a Southern California Bowling league championship was dealt at the A. and B. alleys last night when the crack Jahnke cafe quintette of Los Angeles white-washed the Bowles Motor company, 4 to 0, and in so doing punished the maples for a team total of an even 3000 sticks.

The Jahnkes, just a step out of first place, came down "loaded" to the muzzles. The redoubtable Harry Hopping, star of the recent South-North series in which he bowled five games at an average of 228 pins, was brought along as lead-off man. Hopping, using a fast-breaking curve, had games of 222-245-257 for a series of 724. This is the highest individual series ever shot here outside of the 730 total for three games made at the A. and B. several months ago by Zickovich of the Pico Main cafe five.

"Moose" Ames topped the local bowlers and was third high for the evening with a 593 series. Penny Jones, closing with a 243 game, was next with 585 sticks.

Bandit Hurls Gold At Pursuers, Halts Chase and Escapes

GUANAJUATO, State of Guanajuato, Mexico, March 13.—Threatened with capture in a running race after a payroll robbery near here, the bandit carrying the loot threw gold pieces in the path of his pursuers, who halted to pick up the glittering coins. The bandit, on his over-burdened horse, improved the time thus gained to reach a tortuous canyon, from which he vanished into the mountains.

The escape was the climax of an attack by a band of a dozen robbers upon the paymaster of the Cubo Mining and Milling Co., who was en route to this city with a half dozen armed guards. Although mortally wounded, one of the guards killed two of the bandits before succumbing, while his companions, who had scattered when ambushed, joined in pursuit of the robber, who bore away the paymaster's sack containing 5000 pesos gold.

MAKE CHARGE DRY OFFICER "PROTECTED"

SACRAMENTO, March 13.—At a meeting of the District Attorney Jesse W. Carter of Shasta county is protecting John Vail, former federal prohibition officer charged with the murder of James S. White, deputy fish and game commissioner, in refusing to prosecute Vail, were voiced at a meeting of the assembly judiciary committee which lasted until an early hour yesterday morning.

The committee was considering a resolution introduced in the lower house by Assemblyman Roscoe J. Anderson of Shasta county which called Attorney General U. S. Webb to appoint a special prosecutor to handle the case.

Claim Acted in Self-defense.

Witnesses from Shasta county appeared and Carter was also present. He told the committee that after a careful investigation he was convinced Vail acted in self-defense and that a prosecution of the case would prove futile. He denied attempting to protect Vail.

Attorney General U. S. Webb said he had been studying the case for some time and if he concluded Carter was disqualified to handle the case he would take steps in that direction.

"Otherwise," the attorney general stated, "no resolution or petition passed by this committee or by the legislature can force me to appoint a special prosecutor."

Vail's case is now in the federal court at San Francisco with the federal district attorney scheduled to defend him against the charge and with Carter refusing to push the complaint.

White was shot by Vail during a liquor raid on the Shasta View hotel at Castelo, October 7, 1922.

WORKERS TO FIGHT WAGE CUTS, EDICT

(Copyright, 1925, By United Press)

WASHINGTON, March 13.—Wages must not be reduced! Workers must fight every move towards reduction. William Green president of the American Federation of Labor, said today.

Attacking "some of the important employers in the New England textile industry who are engaged in an attempt to cut wages," Green in an interview, warned against similar attempts in other industries and declared that the wages of all workers depended upon the success of the employers in this first move. "Workers must fight every attempt to reduce wages; if the wages of carpenters are reduced, carpenters buy textiles, and the wages of textile workers are reduced," said Green. "Textile workers will have less money to buy commodities produced by other industries; they eat poorer food; they make the old shoes last longer, burn less coal or no coal at all. So it goes, and every reduction of wages, in the long run, increases unemployment."

"Unemployment has steadily receded before the advance of the trade union movement, which has reduced hours of labor, raised the rates of pay, fostered the development of machinery and taught the workers to demand and get better conditions and higher standards of living."

Unions work constructively for the good of mankind by obtaining wage increase for workers, Green said.

"To a large extent the history of misery and despondency is written in the record of wage reduction," he said.

"To a much greater extent the record of happiness, well-being, prosperity and growing civilization is written in wage increases. Just a few months ago the United States Steel corporation raised wages. The reason doesn't matter much. The effect was magnificent. It made for human happiness."

"Humanity was given a fairer chance when the Carpenters' union, years ago, stood out from the ranks and demanded and got the eight-hour day. The United Mine Workers took the breaker-boys out of the mines and gave slaves a chance to become men. The International Typographical union has saved thousands of lives by the regulations it has induced employers to accept."

"How feeble and ignoble a contribution it is when employers come offering reductions of wages! It has not yet been thoroughly learned that every industry that reduces wages hurts every other industry."

"Today it is the textile workers who are being attacked. Tomorrow it may be someone else. The workers must stand and fight. If employers in the textile industry can reduce wages, then other employers equally foolish, will attempt the same policy."

"Experts have been predicting a prosperous year; everybody hopes it will be; but 1925 is going to be a good year only on condition that the industrial world recognizes the rights of the workers to fair wages."

A Woman's Way

"I tried for four months to get my wife to try Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, which I know had helped a friend of mine who also suffered from stomach trouble. She insisted her case was different. I finally had to bribe her with a new dress. The first dose produced remarkable results, cleaning up her complexion and restoring her appetite. She can now eat things she hadn't been able to for many years." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. At all drug stores.—Adv.

AMERICAN GIRL GETS DIVORCE FROM MOSLEM

PARIS, March 13—"Kipling was right, the east and west should never meet," Jean Nash said here. Confirming reports of her divorce in Cairo from Sabet Bey, scion of Egyptian royalty, "the best dressed woman in Europe," added: "It was the most charming divorce I ever received. Papers were granted immediately when my husband requested them of an obliging priest. We're still the best of friends, but we found we were not suited to each other as husband and wife. The difference of religion (Sabet Bey is a Mohammedan) was insurmountable."

"I'm going to try to be quiet now," the former American girl said, "and cause less worry for my mother, who still is in the United States."

The divorce was granted just one month after her marriage to the wealthy Egyptian.

RABBI BROWNE PLANS EXPOSE IN NEW BOOK

NEW YORK, March 13—If Rabbi E. B. M. Browne, 72, formerly of Evansville, Ind., will promise to write no more annoying letters to President and Mrs. Coolidge or government officials, his case, now pending in Yorkville court, probably will be settled outside court with the aid of the Jewish big sisters.

The aged rabbi, an author and lecturer, was arraigned in court Tuesday on a charge of trying to make President Coolidge pay him $25,000 for his part in the Presidential election. His case was continued until Monday but it is now believed an outside settlement will be effected.

Rabbi Browne said he would devote the rest of his life to the writing of a book in which he would expose the facts surrounding "the raw deal" he got at the hands of the present administration.

Because She Loved Him So

She was only seventeen, beautiful, fresh and wholesome. He was forty-five and wealthy—gross in appearance, grosser in mind. Her purity, her beauty of body and soul, appealed to his jaded fancy. And she married him—or rather, her parents sold her to him. Then youth and love—strong, clean, fine—came to besiege her heart with true reverence and adoration. What did she do? What could she do? She found an answer to that question—but through a process so strange, so startling that it simply proves that no fiction is so fancy as truth. Don't miss this life story, entitled "Playing With Fire" in True Story Magazine for April. And this is but one of 18 absorbing features.

COLDS THAT DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Chronic coughs and persistent colds lead to serious lung trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with twofold action: It soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and kills the germ.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by the medical fraternity as the greatest healing agent for the treatment of chronic cough and colds and other forms of throat and lung troubles. Creomulsion contains in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and destroys the germs that lead to consumption.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of chronic coughs and colds, bronchitis, catarrhal bronchitis and other forms of throat and lung diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or the flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold, no matter of how long standing, is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. Creomulsion Co., Atlanta, Ga. (Adv.)

NEW BUILDINGS TO COME WITH ROAD OPENING

HUNTINGTON BEACH, March 13.—With the opening of the coast highway scheduled for the near future, building activities along the new boulevard were being contemplated here today by local business men.

Andrew J. Teague has secured a 10-year lease on property at the corner of Ocean avenue and First street, it was reported today. Teague intends to install a service station on the corner.

The location is directly opposite the municipal camp grounds and is looked upon as an ideal location for a service station. The lease was secured from S. R. Brown.

Work is also expected to start within the next ten days on the $40,000 garage, to be built on the corner of Ocean avenue and Third street, by J. H. Macklin. L. R. Ridenour has the contract for the building.

Two more building permits, issued during the last two days, have failed to raise the building total of this city much for the month, but the building activities during the coming two weeks promise much, it was revealed today when it became known that plans are already made for extensive improvements at the Obarr drug store, at Main street and Ocean avenue.

Leonard Obarr, owner, says the improvements will consist of a larger fountain and an outside cigar stand. An entirely new front is to be placed in the building, facing on Ocean avenue. Several thousand dollars will be expended on the improvements. Plate glass showcases and the latest in an ice cream parlor will also be installed in connection with the larger soda fountain and candy counter.

Building permits so far in March amount to only $327.50. A permit was issued yesterday to Charles G. Boster, member of the city council, for an addition to a house at 613 Sixteenth street.

S. M. Whitfield was issued a permit for a garage at 414 Seventh street. The building will cost $100.

Junior Woman's Club in Meeting

HUNTINGTON BEACH, March 13.—Members of the Junior Woman's club honored St. Patrick at their meeting Tuesday night. Irish songs by Miss Ardys Cuttelle lent attraction to the evening.

The clubhouse was decorated with green and white. Nearly 50 young women of the town were present. Miss Irene Loew was chairman of the committee in charge of the meeting. She was assisted by Miss Cora Henderson, Miss Arden Dow, Miss Esther Harris and Miss Irene Criley.

Following a business meeting, cards were played. Refreshments were served. Mrs. Lois C. Robb was the first prize winner at bridge. Mrs. G. O. Berry took the honors in Michigan rummy, and Miss Helen Gleave won first prize at "500." At the business meeting, it was decided that admission to all future meetings will be by card only. Membership cards are to be sent to each member at once. One guest will be allowed each member during the year.

Fail In Effort to Break Into Store

FULLERTON, March 13.—Only a heavy bolt at the bottom of the rear door of Porter's variety store saved that establishment from depredations of bandits Wednesday night.

A hole bored through the door just above the lock, and the lock thrown, but a heavy iron bolt out of reach at the bottom of the door foiled the attempts of the intruders and they finally abandoned the job.

A hack saw picked up Chief of Police F. C. Yates, next morning, indicated that the marauders were prepared for most any exigency and it is thought that they must have been frightened away, or else would have accomplished entry to the store.

Find It No Crime To Beat-up Guest

POTSDAM, Germany, March 13.—It's no crime here to knock a man's teeth out. A local court decided that there was no "bodily injury" involved when a piano player clipped a guest in a cabaret so hard that eight of his teeth came out.

The court reasoned that the teeth—atomically speaking—were not a part of the body, the learned judge opined that it was simple enough to buy some store teeth to replace the missing eight.

START GRADING STREETS

Kiwanis Quartet Of Anaheim Will Sing In St. Paul

ANAHEIM, March 13.—Approval of the plans to send the local Kiwanis double quartet to the international Kiwanis convention to be held at St. Paul, Minn., in June, was given at the regular meeting of the Kiwanians here, who voted unanimously that the quartet should sing at the conclusion.

The action was taken following receipt of a letter from George K. Gann, general convention chairman, who declared that many requests had been received asking that the Anaheim singers entertain the convention delegates. These requests came from persons who heard the quartet sing at the Denver convention last year.

Members of the quartet are Warren Ashleigh, Reginald Taylor, M. Eugene Durfee, L. P. Bonnat, Homer Lewis, A. B. McCord, Glen Merrill and Ed Rundstrom.

ANAHEIM FACES SCHOOL BOARD ELECTION FIGHT

ANAHEIM, March 13.—What first promised to be a peaceful election has developed into a spirited contest, as the date for the choice of school board members, on March 27, draws near.

H. E. Carner and E. A. Sparkes, present members, whose term on the high school board expires this month, have entered the race for re-election.

Keen interest is being manifested with the decision of the members to again run for office. Their opponents are J. W. Harpster and E. C. Dutton.

Carner has been a member of the board for five years, while Sparkes, of the Loara district, has been a member of the board since that district was first admitted to the union high school district, nearly 15 years ago. Harpster is a rancher in the Katella district, while Dutton, in the Loara district, is a member of the Republican County Central committee and has become known throughout the city during his activities in politics.

Dutton has been a resident here for 17 years, and has been prominently identified with the avocado industry of the state, being a director in the California Avocado Growers' exchange and vice president of the California Avocado association. Dutton has been one of the leaders in all Republican campaigns here and is now serving his sixth term on the county central committee.

Dance by Eastern Star Draws Crowd

HUNTINGTON BEACH, March 13.—Guests from Long Beach, Redondo, Santa Ana, Anaheim, Fullerton, and other cities united with members of the Eastern Star lodge here Wednesday evening in what is claimed to have been the largest dance and entertainment ever given by the local organization.

The dance was held immediately following the regular business meeting. Miss Marian Parker, worthy matron, was the presiding officer. Mrs. Minnie Pile was chairman of the committee in charge of the dance.

Additional interest was added to the entertainment by an auction of cakes and pies which remained after refreshments had been served. Jeff Davis acted as auctioneer.

Tank Worker Is Severely Burned

HUNTINGTON BEACH, March 13.—Ray Warren, 20, a tank worker for a local oil company, was severely burned late yesterday when kerosene in a lantern which he was using on the inside of a large tank he was assisting to build, exploded. Warren was burned on the face and hands.

Condition of Gus Doughty, tank worker who was seriously injured here Wednesday, was reported much improved today.

Doughty was injured when four large steel plates weighing nearly 400 pounds, fell on him as he was working behind them. His left side was crushed, and he was cut on the head.

Name Mrs. Downs President of Club

HUNTINGTON BEACH, March 13.—Mrs. R. E. Downs was re-elected president of the Woman's club at the regular meeting of the organization this week. Her election was recommended by the nominating committee, which was appointed recently following refusal of three candidates to accept nomination for the office.

Mrs. Mae Jackson was elected vice president; Mrs. A. M. Anderson, secretary; Mrs. Lois C. Robb, treasurer, and Mrs. Maggie Moore, trustee.

Miss Estelle Lawton Lindsey, of a Los Angeles newspaper, was the speaker of the day. Miss Lindsey gave a review of "The New Decalogues of Science," by Albert Edward Wiggins. Mrs. C. C. Newland played several violin solos.

PARSONAGE IN HARBOR CITY IS DEDICATED

NEWPORT BEACH, March 13.—Newport Beach Community church dedicated its new parsonage Thursday. An open house and social gathering featured the afternoon, with the Balboa and Newport ladies in charge. The evening program was in the nature of more formal acceptance and dedication of the new church accessory. Dr. Clyde M. Crist, district superintendent, gave the main address and the Rev. John Engle brought greetings from the Costa Mesa church. Many out-of-town visitors were present.

One of the interesting features of the evening program was the history of the church, read by its oldest member, Mrs. Helen Smith. She has been active in its service for 23 of its 35 years and her recital of its difficult days of beginning and of its struggles to keep going and it had once started, carried touched humor and pathos. Mrs. John Sharpe, now living in Santa Ana, was one of the pioneers and a letter from her recalling the early days was a part of Mrs. Smith's history. Mr. and Mrs. Sharps and two children removed to the beach in 1890 and kept a small hotel on Twenty-first street.

Sunday School Is Started

A year before, Mrs. Mary Brackett had started a Sunday school with six pupils in her home, a tent where the Barker apartments now stand, and Mrs. Sharps interested herself at once in the Sunday school and was instrumental in having it develop into a church. Her hotel was the home for the preachers who came one after the other, mostly young students from the University of California, who left when their college work was done, for wider fields.

Part of the time the church was interdenominational, and for a while it was Baptist. In 1904, Fred Best, a fisherman, and Miss Helen Stelberg, a school teacher, established a Community church. He was a Later Day Saint and she was a Methodist, but the church was undenominational. It was sufficiently flourishing to buy a lot and erect a building, still standing and known as the Clamshell apartments. A preacher was installed there, and the Ladies' Aid society was then, as ever since, the backbone of the organization. But it seemed best to have a denominational church. Although there were many Methodists in the membership, for some reason they were not able to avail themselves of the chance to buy the property, which Miss Stelberg offered to them first, and the Baptists purchased it and took charge.

Union of Denominations

Indication of the spirit which actuated these pioneers was given by their attitude in joining the church. Many of them were immersed in the waters of the bay, or in the font of the Baptist church at Huntington Beach, although their Methodist faith believes in Baptism by sprinkling. But after a few years, the Baptists gave up the field. Then the Methodists rallied and took up the work again. For a while they used the church, but when rent was charged to them, even the $5 a month was prohibitive and they moved to the city hall, where they held services until 1915, when the present property was purchased. The pulpit now used, and the wood heater, are relics of the church under the Baptist regime.

The first definite move toward a parsonage was taken last summer, when members of the aid society banded themselves together with the particular object of raising funds for the parsonage. When the present minister, the Rev. Grover C. Ralston, came last October, he set directly and literally to work to make a parsonage possible. In eight weeks after they started the project, at the beginning of the new year, a modern six room, two story bungalow, complete in every detail of comfort and convenience, had sprung up on the vacant lot next the church, the pastor and his family had moved in.

PLAYERS IN REHEARSAL

HUNTINGTON BEACH, March 13.—With the date for the chamber of commerce play, 10,000," set definitely for March 24 and 25, at the city auditorium, players are rehearsing nightly at the Obarr banquet hall.

Slot Machines In Orange Are To Be Banned

ORANGE, March 13.—The ordinance recently adopted by the city council providing for the licensing of slot machines will soon be cast aside. The council has decided to not levy a tax against the machines. Even the statute dealing with minors, who were forbidden from playing the machines or punchboards, may not be necessary.

But, instead, the board has decided to ban the machines altogether. A substitute ordinance to this effect has passed its first reading and will be adopted at the next meeting of the council.

The new ordinance, which repeals all previous ones on the subject, makes it unlawful for any person, firm or corporation in Orange to install, use or maintain any slot machine, except weighing machines, that returns to the player money, slugs, checks or any other representative of value or money.

Under its provisions, the city marshal is instructed to enforce the ordinance and suppress any slot machines operating in violation of the statute.

A fine not to exceed $300, 90 days in jail or both is provided upon conviction of violating the ordinance. The new statute will become effective 30 days from final adoption.

DISTRICTS TO VOTE MARCH 21 ON SEPARATION

FULLERTON, March 13.—Voters of the Brea and Olin districts, it was announced yesterday, will go to the polls March 21, instead of March 27, as originally reported, to decide whether or not they wish to secede from the Fullerton Union high school district.

Even if secession is voted, these districts will still be required to take part in the election March 27, when the whole high school district is to vote on two trustees to succeed those whose terms expire, it is pointed out. Thus, though the people of these northern communities may decide to separate from the union, the separation would not take effect for perhaps 30 days after the election date, and in the meantime they will be considered a part of the Fullerton Union high school district.

Of the two trustees whose terms expire, one, Ross Hodson, has announced his candidacy for reelection, but the Rev. Frank Dowling, the other member, has declined another term.

EVENING SALUTATION

The bright hours pass like birds on pinions golden,
And leave their empty nests in Memory's halls;
And in the past, with all its mysteries olden,
Oblivion, like a twilight, o'er them falls.
They have sweet songs to cheer, they have glad voices,
Their flashing wings like flaming sunbeams burn;
But, ah! e'en while the listening ear rejoices,
They speed away and never more return.
—Ernest W. Shurtleff.

WILLIAM F. HEATHMAN

Colonel Heathman, our friend and everybody's friend, has passed away. Without him, the city hall will no longer be the same place it was. A genial, kindly old man, who was long a part of the public life of this city, Colonel Heathman is no longer in its corridors or sitting in his chair.

In the passing of Colonel Heathman, there goes a man whose position was quite unique in this city. The fact that time and again he was elected city attorney, and, in his declining years, was twice elected city recorder shows something of the good wishes that all had in their hearts for him.

Thoughts of those who have known Colonel Heathman since pioneer days are going back to old political conventions when Colonel Heathman was ranked among the Democratic war horses. There never was a Democratic convention without a stirring address by Colonel Heathman. Their thoughts are going back to kindness and kindness that made them friends for life of Colonel Heathman, relationships that were evidenced at election times when the old-timers always voted solidly for Colonel Heathman.

A GOOD TEACHER RETIRES

The retirement of a teacher after thirty-three years of public service is an occasion for comment. It is an occasion for us to reflect upon the high value of the teaching profession, to measure in our minds the things it stands for, the fortunate position we are in as American citizens that the profession in the past has always called to it men and women of high character and ability.

And particularly it is time for reflection when a teacher like Miss Fannie M. Pease brings her work to a close. Miss Pease was a "natural-born" teacher. She enjoyed her work; she enjoyed meeting her pupils; she enjoyed her associations as a teacher with other teachers and with those she taught. Blessed with a keen insight into human nature, teaching for her was not a humdrum life. That same keen insight into human nature brought success in her profession.

When one reflects upon the influence that a teacher such as Miss Pease has always been and still is, can have and does have upon many lives, we begin to realize that a good teacher is one of the greatest assets a community may have, one of the greatest blessings that children, growing into citizenship, can have.

THE INTELLIGENT AGE

Geoffrey H. Thompson, an English educator, concludes after long research that human intelligence is keenest at the age of 16. That is to say, at 16 a boy or girl is more capable of grasping and understanding things than he or she ever was before, or ever will be again.

Additional knowledge will come later. Maturity should bring more judgment, more wisdom. But never again will the mind be so plastic to new impressions, so quick and receptive to new ideas and information.

The intelligent man, Prof. Thompson says, is nearly always found to have an intelligent youth. There are two obvious conclusions to be drawn from this. One is the importance of teachers and parents doing their best to utilize the outburst of intelligence that comes normally to a youngster in his teens. The other is the folly and waste of boys and girls leaving school, as so many do, just at the time when their minds are most receptive to knowledge and influences which tend to shape all the rest of their lives.

UNITED EFFORT ACHIEVES

The newest airplane motor is a true product of the Syndicated Age. No genius invented it. It is the achievement of a corporation, and 300 engineers co-operated to perfect it.

It realizes the long-cherished dream of "a pound to the horse-power." That is a thousand times the efficiency of the horse itself, and far beyond that of the carrier pigeon or the eagle.

It closely approaches the limit of possibility, with materials and forces now known, but may be scarcely a beginning of future accomplishments, with new forces and materials.

It brings near the airplane which will outrace the sound of its own motor and may make practical the helicopter, which can fly straight up or land in a crowded street without endangering anybody.

It is the newest mechanical output of the newest human phenomenon—the organization of constructive effort.

GASOLINE PRICES

Production of gasoline in the United States last year amounted to eight billion, nine hundred and sixty million gallons, the largest output in the history of the industry.

This exceeds by about a billion and a half gallons the previous high record mark, made in 1923.

Likewise, consumption of gasoline increased. Daily average domestic demand last year amounted to more than 21 million gallons, an increase of 16 per cent.

Still, with record production and a demand that does not even approach the supply, gasoline prices go soaring. One reason is that foreign countries are buying lots of it—and paying big prices.

LEGISLATIVE BROADCASTING

The broadcasting of a session of the Kansas legislature at Topeka caused more of a flurry among the legislators than it did among their auditors. When the proposal was sprung by the state university broadcasting station, a lot of members protested. "Lawrence" they insisted "are not used to these new-fangled machines. We can't think straight and talk straight before a microphone."

They were all the more embarrassed when a progressive member urged his colleagues to brace up and do their very best, because they would hear all the way from Topeka to New York, and "the speeches should be representative of the high intelligence of this legislature."

They did their turn pretty well, too. Which leads to the conclusion that it would be a good thing for any legislature to give it the air occasionally.

"Riders" Are An Evil

San Francisco Chronicle.

Congress, and especially the senate, has the habit, particularly during the last days of a session, of attaching as "riders" to appropriation bills measures which otherwise could not pass. Sometimes these riders are harmless or even useful. Sometimes—as in the case of the rider raising the pay of Congressmen—they are made riders because the legislators are afraid or ashamed to let their constituents know how they voted. The raise of Congressional pay was germane to the legislative appropriation bill, but there was no aye and no vote in the Senate, and a record vote on concurrence by the House was refused by a vote of 237 to 93. Such things and the Senatorial filibuster are discreditable legislative proceedings.

We had a similar state of affairs in our California Legislature until the adoption of the constitution of 1879. Section 24 of that instrument reads as follows:

"Every act shall embrace but one subject, which shall be expressed in its title. But if any subject shall be embraced in an act which shall not be expressed in its title such an act shall be void only as to so much as shall not be expressed in its title."

Another section provides that there must be an aye and no vote on the passage of any bill, and an affirmative vote of a majority of the members elected to the House is necessary to the passage of a bill.

Congress needs regulation by such a provision, or one similar in effect. We dislike the thought of cluttering up the Federal Constitution with such a detail, but if no other method can be found to put a stop to the practice of offering riders the Constitution can be amended for this purpose.

Too Many Holidays

San Francisco Chronicle.

There is no crying need in California for any addition to our list of legal holidays. From time to time the Legislature has set apart days for the celebration of this, that or the other event until holidays have become so common that public interest in the anniversaries of real National and State importance is on the wane.

The California Assembly has just passed a bill making Gold Discovery day, January 24, a legal holiday. There is no occasion for it. We already have Admission day, the anniversary of California's birth as a state, which affords ample opportunity for celebrating and commemorating all the events that are interwoven with our history, our growth, our progress, our achievements, and our greatness.

These unnecessary holidays not only have no greater significance to the public than just a "day off," but they have detracted from the observance of those occasions which formerly commanded patriotic observance.

When we stop to consider that each addition to our holidays affects, directly or indirectly, the purse of every wage earner, we see that these days off are expensive. We have in California, according to the census reports of 1920, 1,512,760 wage earners. The holiday means a cessation of their routine employment. Placing their average daily income at $5, a holiday takes $7,563,800 from them.

The interference with the usual course of business, our financial transactions, our industrial activities and our commercial enterprises levies a toll that is beyond estimate.

Books In Bewildering Number

Pasadena Star-News.

"Of the making of books there is no end." The question seriously might be propounded: "Are there not too many books?" Comes now W. W. Ellsworth, former president of the Century company, who is an authority on books, who says that he could not read all the books written about Shakespeare, even though one devoted a lifetime to it. Not fewer than 48,000 books and articles have been written about the great bard of Avon. It would require 132 years to read all of these, Mr. Ellsworth estimates.

And these books are but a "drop in the bucket." There are books by thousands, by tens of thousands, by millions. There are books in bewildering profusion, dealing with every conceivable subject. It is confusing to the average reader, who must either wade through acres of books and make his own choice, or else depend upon Dr. Eliot or others to choose "the world's best" in books. But if one is reasonably discriminating, one is sure to have abundance of good literature for life, to enrich one's mind and to broaden one's spiritual horizon.

EDITORIAL SHORTS

Americans have not yet learned how to live. Not only do they take life too seriously, but they work too fast and wear out before their time. This is the indictment placed against us by the medical men of the country and visitors from other lands. Here we are, the largest and most powerful nation in all the world, a nation with the greatest electric development and labor saving devices of any known country and yet we do not have time to play, to visit and to travel as do our brothers and sisters of other countries.—Santa Cruz Sentinel.

YOUR HEALTH

By DR. CLIFFORD C. ROBINSON

DEFECTIVE EYES

The Eyesight Conservation Council of America has lately made the astonishing statement that 25,000,000 Americans who are workers have defective vision.

In other words, through disease conditions which have been ignored, mainly during the years of childhood, a great number have defective eyes. Other conditions which prevail in adults result from eye strain in some special occupation which calls for strenuous work during long hours.

The eyes are overworked and many never try to effect a remedy. Glasses are often neglected and the eyes become the cause of severe nervous headaches, dizziness, brain fatigue, floating specks before the eyes, and at times, severe cases of bodily fatigue.

There is also the trouble of blurred eyes and redness with frequent styes. This condition is frequently caused by some catarrhal or diseased nasal sinuses. But if nothing is done to correct such eye troubles, they become worse and worse.

If the disease conditions which produce so many defective eyes were properly looked after, the percentage of such eyes in the industrial world (about 47 per cent) would be materially reduced.

On the other hand, the industrial conditions have become so exacting in many occupations that the real value of eyesight is often destroyed in a few years.

Have your eyes examined when any trouble occurs.

Ah-h! His Music Is Improving

Sharing The Life of The Child

Kansas City Times

Complaints are frequent about the conduct of young people these days. But there is another side to the picture. Youth, whatever its shortcomings, is not entirely responsible. One observer recently repeated a remark which, it was declared, had come often from young people: "Father and mother don't treat us as reasonable human beings; they act like critical judges."

Isn't it too often the case that older persons become critics rather than companions of boys and girls? It is easy for parents to remain absorbed in their own affairs; this is a busy world and its exactions upon the average individual are heavy. Normal parents would resent an insinuation that they do not love their children. Yet parental love is not an antidote to neglectfulness. The child and its interests may be forgotten or their importance underestimated, even by the affectionate father or mother.

An elderly father had led a busy life. The competition of the business world and other affairs had kept him away from home most of the time for many years. His children grew up and entered high school. They, too, soon developed interests away from home. The mother's influence there was not strong enough to hold them.

"They have grown away from me; I feel that I have lost them," said the father. "I didn't enjoy them or make their lives a part of mine when I had the chance."

Worth While Verse

BUGLE SONG

The splendor falls on castle walls
And snowy summits old in story;
The long light shakes across the lakes
And the wild cataraet leaps in glory.
Blow, bugle blow, set the wild echoes flying,
Blow, bugle; answer, echoes, dying, dying, dying.

O hark, O hear! how thin and clear,
And thinner, clearer; farther going!
O sweet and far from cliff and scar
The horns of Elfland faintly blowing!
Blow, let us hear the purple glee repling:
Blow, bugle; answer, echoes, dying, dying, dying.

O love, they die in yon rich sky,
They faint on hill or field or river;
Our echoes roll from soul to soul,
And grow for ever and for ever.
Blow, bugle blow, set the wild echoes flying,
And answer, echoes, answer, dying, dying, dying.

—Tennyson.

THAT BOSTON JOKE

A number of boys were playing baseball in a vacant lot in Boston, when the ball crashed through a window of an adjacent house. The wrathful householder stormed out in pursuit of the guilty ones. He managed to capture one spectacled, slow-footed youth.

"Then what did you run for?" roared the injured man.

"I'm afraid that I was a victim of the prevailing mob hysteria, sir."—Country Gentleman.

Another Manager City

Dallas Journal

Kansas City, by the will of an overwhelming majority of its citizens who voted on the subject, has been definitely enrolled with the many American cities, large and small, which are operating under council-manager form of municipal government. The new recruit should cause rejoicing in the ranks of advocates of the managerial system, for Kansas City is one of the largest municipalities to engage in a test of the new system.

The result of managerial operation in Kansas City will therefore be followed with keen interest by all cities of size in the country. The election verdict was not prompted solely by the disgust of citizens with the old aldermanic system. It was prompted by something more constructive than that. For days before the election word had been coming from cities operating under managers, this in each case being a report direct from the Chamber of Commerce. The one organization whose members would be free of any possible political coloring and which would be based solely upon tangible accomplishments.

With hardly an exception, the cities reporting and represented in a daily symposium published by The Kansas City Star, testified to the value of the managerial system, and not a few of them made the unreserved statement that they would not return to the old system of government under any consideration. For Dayton report was made that "100 per cent service is received for every dollar paid under the present plan," and that the city is operating today on 14 per cent less revenue than it had in 1913 when the change to the managerial system was made. Dubuque reported that "the old indebtedness is being reduced and the tax rate is somewhat lower. Taxpayers almost without exception have confidence in plan and realize that they are getting what they paid for. Delinquent taxes have been collected and wiped off the books, and life insurances reduced from Class 6 to Class 3. The city is being operated as a successful business corporation should be." Sacramento reported a reduction in operating expenses and in the tax rate for each year of managerial operation, with a 36 per cent increase in the scope of departmental activities. Niagara Falls and Springfield, O., were among the other cities reporting, citing a record of progress to attest the superior working of the new system.

If within a year, or within two or five years, Kansas City makes a similar report, the managerial system will have been thoroughly vindicated by test as to commend itself to all progressive citizens for adoption.

FRIDAY

John the Baptist
Read Lk. 7:24-35. Text: 7:28. Among them that are born of women there is none greater than John.

MEDITATION—John the Baptist had two great characteristics which fitted him to be the forerunner of Christ. He was a "rock which no man could move" and "he endured all hardships and was obvious to all human delights. Courage and consecration—these constitute prime factors in moral greatness." Every true Christian is called to be a forerunner of Christ; to make straight and plain Christ's way into the hearts of others; to stand for him without fear and with all devotion. "No greater dignity has ever been conferred upon a human soul; no higher privilege can now be enjoyed than that of turning the thoughts and hearts of men to Jesus Christ, the Saviour of the world." Knowing as we do the need of the world for Christ and his power to save men, how great is our responsibility to "prepare the way of the Lord!"

PRAYER—Most gracious Father,

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

by Olive Roberts Barton

NO. 5—THE TOYMAKER GUESSES SOME PUZZLES

"We must go and see the Toy Maker at once," said the March Hare.

"Why?" asked Nancy. "It isn't Christmas."

"Of course not," said the March Hare, "but spring is here, so that's quite as important. I must look over his stock and see that he has the proper things. Get on, my dears."

So the Twins got on the March Hare's willing back and off he ran like the wind to the Toy Maker's. And they all walked right in as though they owned the place.

"What have you got?" asked the March Hare.

"Cross-word puzzles right up to date," said the Toy Maker over his specs. "I mean said the Toy Maker looking over his specs."

The March Hare looked carefully around. "All right, I'll take one," he said, "if you help me to guess the answers."

"Sure," said the Toy Maker smiling. "I'd like to."

Nancy and Nick thought it queer for a hare to be guessing cross-word puzzles, but they said never a word. He was pretty smart, the hare was, and knew what he was doing.

"The first word," said the March Hare, opening the book to the first puzzle, "says 'What word in four letters means something the children like to fly on a windy day?'"

"Kite!" cried everybody.

"That's right," said the March Hare, looking at the Toy Maker out of the corner of his eye. The Toy Maker was writing "kites" in his order book.

"What word means to spin round and round when unwound from a string—three letters?" went on the March Hare.

"Top!" cried everybody just like
